

National Security Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
ON REPORT

Clause 30

LORD BEITH

Clause 30, page 22, line 30, at end insert “when carried out in support of and with the authority of the Security Service, the Secret Intelligence Service or GCHQ”

Member's explanatory statement

The purpose of this amendment is to clarify that any immunity from prosecution conferred by this Clause does not extend to the activities of the Armed Forces in general, but only to those activities carried out in support of the Intelligence Agencies.

National Security Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
ON REPORT

30 January 2023

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS