After Clause 187

LORD HAIN

Insert the following new Clause—

“International Anti-Corruption Court

- (1) Within six months of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must seek to begin negotiations with international partners to establish an International Anti-Corruption Court (IACC).
- (2) It is to be the objective of the Secretary of State in the negotiations to secure that the IACC has the following purposes—
  - (a) to hear cases of international economic corruption, and
  - (b) to sentence persons to appropriate punishment for international economic corruption.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay a report before each House of Parliament within a year of the passing of this Act on the progress of the negotiations.
- (4) In this section “international economic corruption” means offences which if committed in the United Kingdom would constitute an offence mentioned in paragraph 15 of Schedule 9.”
