

Online Safety Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE
[Supplementary to the Fourth Marshalled List]

Amendment
No.

Clause 17

BARONESS FOX OF BUCKLEY

53A★

Page 18, line 42, at end insert—

“(d) provides for a notification to any user whose content has been removed or restricted, including the nature of the restriction, the length of time that the restriction will be in place, evidenced justification and information on how the user may appeal.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment intends to ensure that companies are fully transparent with users about any removal or restriction of their content, including informing the user on how to appeal the decision.

Online Safety Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

28 April 2023
