 - (b) speedily, efficiently, effectively and proportionately,
 - (c) without cost to leaseholders or occupiers, and
 - (d) so far as reasonably practicable without recourse to lengthy and expensive legal proceedings.
- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule “building safety remediation principle” is the principle that –
 - (a) so far as reasonably practicable, remediation costs for relevant buildings with building safety risks arising from defective construction or additional building work should be met by the developer, the principal contractor or both, and
 - (b) where that is not reasonably practicable, or where building safety risks do not arise from defective construction or additional building work, costs should be met by the building industry.

Scope of the scheme

- 2 The BSRS must be framed so as to apply to relevant buildings which –
 - (a) were constructed, or subject to additional building work, on or after 1 June 1992, and
 - (b) present building safety risks.

Operation of the scheme

- 3 (1) The BSRS must provide for persons (including freeholders and leaseholders) to apply –
 - (a) for a building to be recognised as a relevant building, and
 - (b) for a relevant building to be recognised as eligible for grants in respect of the cost of remediation works.
- (2) The BSRS must provide –
 - (a) for the appointment of persons (“BSRS adjudicators”) with appropriate expertise to determine, on behalf of the Secretary of State, applications under sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b), and

- (b) for BSRS adjudicators to be required to exercise operational independence in making determinations under the scheme.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), the BSRS may provide for appointments to be made by the Secretary of State or by one or more persons designated for that purpose by the Secretary of State under the scheme.
- (4) The BSRS must provide that determinations of BSRS adjudicators in respect of building eligibility for the scheme under paragraph 4 are final (but nothing in this sub-paragraph prevents the exercise by the High Court of its judicial review jurisdiction).

Scheme supplementary regulations

- 4 (1) The Secretary of State must make regulations (“scheme supplementary regulations”) in respect of the BSRS.
- (2) Scheme supplementary regulations, in particular –
 - (a) may make provision for determining what is to be, or not to be, treated as a relevant building for the purposes of the scheme;
 - (b) may make provision for determining the date on which buildings were constructed or subject to additional building work;
 - (c) may make provision for determining who is entitled to make an application under the scheme in respect of a relevant building;
 - (d) may specify criteria to be applied by BSRS adjudicators in determining whether a relevant building presents building safety risks as a result of defective construction (and the criteria may, in particular, make provision wholly or partly by reference to building regulations or other enactments in force at the time of construction or by reference to specified classes of document);
 - (e) may make provision permitting or requiring BSRS adjudicators to conduct tests, and requiring owners and occupiers of relevant buildings to cooperate with BSRS adjudicators in conducting tests;

 - (h) may make provision about evidence to be adduced in support of an application;

- (o) may make provision for determining, having regard in particular to the need for proportionality, the nature and extent of remediation costs which may be funded by the scheme (for which purpose “remediation costs” means any class of expenditure related to building safety risks, including, in particular, repair costs, the costs of interim mitigation or safety measures and reimbursement of or compensation for increases in insurance premiums);
- (p) may make provision for account to be taken of grants provided in respect of remediation works by any other scheme established by enactment or by a public authority;
- (q) may make provision for financial assistance provided by any other scheme established by enactment or by a public authority to be repaid out of grants under the remediation scheme;

- 5 (1) The Secretary of State must make regulations about the funding of the BSRS and of grants made under it (“scheme funding regulations”).
- (2) Scheme funding regulations must aim to apply the building safety remediation principle so far as practicable.
- (3) For that purpose, scheme funding regulations must aim to ensure that a grant awarded under the BSRS is funded –
 - (a) so far as possible where building safety risks arise from defective construction or additional building work, by the developer or principal contractor of the building in respect of which the grant is awarded, and

- (b) failing that (whether by reason of the dissolution of a developer or principal contractor, insolvency or otherwise), or where building safety risks do not arise from defective construction or additional building work, by money paid into a fund maintained through a levy on the building industry in general, or specified parts of the building industry.
- (4) For the purposes of achieving the objective in sub-paragraph (3)(a) –
- (a) the reference to the developer of a building includes a reference to any person who arranged for its construction or additional building work and for the sale of units in the building;
 - (b) the reference to the principal contractor is a reference to the person who was responsible to the developer for the construction of a building or undertaking additional building work;
 - (c) scheme funding regulations must permit a BSRS adjudicator to provide for an award under the scheme to be paid by one or more persons specified by the adjudicator (and awards may, in particular, provide for joint and several liability);
 - (d) scheme funding regulations must confer a right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal;
 - (e) scheme funding regulations may include provision permitting a BSRS adjudicator to permit or require an award for payment by a specified person to be satisfied wholly or partly by a person connected to that person (within the meaning of the regulations, for which purpose the regulations may apply, with or without modification, section 121 of the Building Safety Act 2022 and any enactment relating to joint ventures);

 - (iv) create criminal offences in connection with evasion.
- (5) For the purposes of achieving the objective in sub-paragraph (3)(b), scheme funding regulations –
- (a) must establish one or more levies to be paid by specified businesses or classes of business;
 - (b) must make provision for determining liability to pay the levy;
 - (c) may confer functions on BSRS adjudicators or other specified persons (which may include the Secretary of State) in respect of determination of liability to pay the levy;
 - (d) must confer on a person determined to be liable to pay the levy the right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal;
 - (e) may provide for different amounts of levy to be paid by different classes of person;
 - (f) may provide for the levy to be paid by way of one-off payments, periodic payments or both;

- (g) may include provision about enforcement of liability to pay the levy (which may, in particular, provide for collection of the levy as a statutory debt, include provision for interest or penalties and create criminal offences in connection with evasion);
 - (h) must include provision about the administration of the levy by the Secretary of State, including provision as to the maintenance and publication of estimates, accounts and other records;
 - (i) may include supplemental provision about the levy.
- (6) In making regulations under sub-paragraph (5), and in particular in assessing the proportionality and other fairness of any levy imposed by regulations under sub-paragraph (5), the Secretary of State must –

 - (d) terms and conditions of awards, levies and grants;
 - (e) appraisals, appeals and enforcement.

Apportionment

- 6 (1) Scheme funding regulations may make provision about apportionment of liability for defective construction.
- (2) In particular, scheme funding regulations may provide that where a person is required to pay an award under the BSRS, that person may bring proceedings to recover a contribution from one or more persons who share responsibility for the defects in respect of which the award is made.
- (3) Provision made by virtue of this paragraph may –
- (a) confer jurisdiction on the First-tier Tribunal or on any other specified court or tribunal;
