

Data Protection and Digital Information Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
IN GRAND COMMITTEE

Clause 32

LORD CLEMENT-JONES

Clause 32, page 58, line 34, at end insert –

- “(7) It is the duty of the Commissioner to provide on request advice to a Senior Responsible Individual of any entity in relation to its procedures for implementing specific requirements.
- (8) Such advice when provided must have the status of “assured advice” which cannot be the subject of any prosecution or enforcement provided it is followed in full and has not been rescinded prior to the action in question.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment places an obligation on the Commissioner to ensure that a business can request and receive advice on request.
