TO

Make provision about the removal of certain migrants to the Republic of Rwanda.

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Introduction

- (1) The purpose of this Act is to prevent and deter unlawful migration, and in particular migration by unsafe and illegal routes, by enabling the removal of persons to the Republic of Rwanda under provision made by or under the Immigration Acts while maintaining full compliance with domestic and international law. 5
- (2) To advance that purpose—
 - (a) the Rwanda Treaty has been laid before Parliament under section 20 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (treaties to be laid before Parliament before ratification) with a view to ratification by the United Kingdom, and 10
 - (b) this Act gives effect to the judgement of Parliament that the Republic of Rwanda will be a safe country when, and so long as, the arrangements provided for in the Rwanda Treaty have been fully implemented and are being adhered to in practice. 15
- (3) The Government of the Republic of Rwanda has, in accordance with the Rwanda Treaty, agreed to fulfil the following obligations—
 - (a) that any person removed to the Republic of Rwanda under the provisions of the Treaty (a “relocated individual”) will not be removed from Rwanda except to the United Kingdom; 20
 - (b) that any relocated individual is to be made available for return to the United Kingdom following a request from the Government of the United Kingdom;
 - (c) that the system for the processing of protection claims by relocated individuals is to be improved; 25
 - (d) that relocated individuals are to be treated equally, irrespective of the status that they are granted in the Republic of Rwanda;

- (e) that relocated individuals are to be provided with legal assistance for the purposes of their protection claims and any appeals relating to such claims;
- (f) that the obligations mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) are to be independently monitored and subject to a form of binding dispute settlement. 5
- (4) It is recognised that—
- (a) the Parliament of the United Kingdom is sovereign, and
- (b) the validity of an Act is unaffected by international law.
- (5) For the purposes of this Act, a “safe country” — 10
- (a) means a country to which persons may be removed from the United Kingdom in compliance with all of the United Kingdom’s obligations under international law that are relevant to the treatment in that country of persons who are removed there, and
- (b) includes, in particular, a country — 15
- (i) from which a person removed to that country will not be removed or sent to another country in contravention of any international law, and
- (ii) in which any person who is seeking asylum or who has had an asylum determination will both have their claim determined and be treated in accordance with that country’s obligations under international law. 20
- (6) For the purposes of this Act, “international law” includes —
- (a) the Human Rights Convention,
- (b) the Refugee Convention, 25
- (c) the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights of 1966,
- (d) the United Nations Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment of 1984,
- (e) the Council of Europe Convention on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings done at Warsaw on 16 May 2005, 30
- (f) customary international law, and
- (g) any other international law, or convention or rule of international law, whatsoever, including any order, judgment, decision or measure of the European Court of Human Rights.
- (7) The Rwanda Treaty will have been fully implemented for the purposes of this Act when the Secretary of State has obtained and laid before Parliament a statement from the independent Monitoring Committee formed under Article 15 that the objectives referred to in Article 2 of the Treaty have been secured by the creation of the mechanisms listed in that Article. 35
- (8) The Secretary of State must consult the Monitoring Committee every three months during the period that the Treaty remains in force, and must make a statement to Parliament at the earliest opportunity in the event that the advice of the Monitoring Committee is that the provisions of the Treaty are not being adhered to in practice. 40

- (9) If the advice of the Monitoring Committee is as referred to in subsection (8), the Rwanda Treaty shall cease to be treated as fully implemented for the purposes of this Act unless and until the Secretary of State has obtained from the Monitoring Committee, and laid before Parliament, subsequent advice that the provisions of the Treaty are being adhered to in practice. 5

2 Safety of the Republic of Rwanda

- (1) Every decision-maker must conclusively treat the Republic of Rwanda as a safe country unless presented with credible evidence to the contrary.
- (2) A decision-maker means –
- (a) the Secretary of State or an immigration officer when making a decision relating to the removal of a person to the Republic of Rwanda under any provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts; 10
 - (b) a court or tribunal when considering a decision of the Secretary of State or an immigration officer mentioned in paragraph (a).

3 Disapplication of the Human Rights Act 1998 15

- (1) The provisions of this Act apply notwithstanding the relevant provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998, which are disapplied as follows.
- (2) The relevant provisions are –
- (a) section 2 (interpretation of Convention rights),
 - (b) section 3 (interpretation of legislation), and 20
 - (c) sections 6 to 9 (acts of public authorities).
- (3) Section 2 does not apply where a court or tribunal is determining a question relating to whether the Republic of Rwanda is a safe country for a person to be removed to under any provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts.
- (4) Section 3 does not apply in relation to this Act. 25
- (5) Sections 6 to 9 do not apply in relation to –
- (a) a decision taken on the basis of section 2(1) of this Act (decision-makers to treat Rwanda as safe),
 - (b) a decision as to whether to grant an interim remedy on the basis of section 4(2) of this Act (interim remedies: serious and irreversible harm), or 30
 - (c) a decision taken on the basis of section 4(1) of this Act (decisions in individual claims) –
- (i) under section 42(2), 44(6)(a) or 45(3) of the Illegal Migration Act 2023 (serious and irreversible harm) in relation to the removal of a person under that Act to the Republic of Rwanda, or 35
 - (ii) under section 44(6)(a) of the Illegal Migration Act 2023, as applied by section 2AA of the Special Immigration Appeals Commission Act 1997 (appeals to the Special Immigration Appeals Commission: serious and irreversible harm), in relation 40 to the removal of a person under the Illegal Migration Act 2023 to the Republic of Rwanda.

4 Decisions in individual claims

- (1) Section 2 does not prevent—
- (a) the Secretary of State or an immigration officer from deciding (under any applicable provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts) whether the Republic of Rwanda is a safe country for the person in question or for a group of persons to which that person belongs, 5
 - (b) a court or tribunal considering a review of, or an appeal against, a relevant decision to the extent that the review or appeal is brought on the grounds that the Republic of Rwanda is not a safe country for the person in question or for a group of persons to which that person belongs, or 10
 - (c) a decision-maker considering whether there is a real risk that the Republic of Rwanda will remove or send the person in question to another State in contravention of any of its international obligations. 15
- (2) The court or tribunal may grant an interim remedy that prevents or delays, or that has the effect of preventing or delaying, the removal of the person to the Republic of Rwanda.
- (3) Section 54 of the Illegal Migration Act 2023 is disapplied for the purposes of this Act. 20
- (4) In this section—
- “interim remedy” means any interim remedy or relief however described (including, in particular, an interim injunction or interdict);
 - “relevant decision” means a decision taken by the Secretary of State or an immigration officer (under any applicable provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts) that the Republic of Rwanda is a safe country for the person in question. 25

5 Section 57 of the Illegal Migration Act 2023

Section 57 of the Illegal Migration Act 2023 (decisions relating to a person’s age) does not apply in relation to removals to the Republic of Rwanda. 30

6 Interim measures of the European Court of Human Rights

- (1) This section applies where the European Court of Human Rights indicates an interim measure in proceedings relating to the intended removal of a person to the Republic of Rwanda under, or purportedly under, a provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts. 35
- (2) It is for a Minister of the Crown (and only a Minister of the Crown) to decide whether the United Kingdom will comply with the interim measure.
- (3) Accordingly, a court or tribunal must not have regard to the interim measure when considering any application or appeal which relates to a decision to 40 remove the person to the Republic of Rwanda under a provision of, or made under, the Immigration Acts.

- (4) In this section—
- (a) a reference to “the Immigration Acts” does not include the Illegal Migration Act 2023 (see instead section 55 of that Act);
 - (b) a reference to a Minister of the Crown is to a Minister of the Crown acting in person.

7 Removals to Rwanda under the Illegal Migration Act 2023

Within 60 days of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a statement referring to all individuals whose asylum claims have been deemed inadmissible since the granting of Royal Assent to the Illegal Migration Act 2023, confirming—

- (a) the number of such individuals due to be removed to the Republic of Rwanda under the Rwanda Treaty,
- (b) the timetable for these removals, and
- (c) the arrangements in place for any such individuals not due to be removed to the Republic of Rwanda during the time period set out in the Rwanda Treaty.

8 Removal of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking

- (1) A person with a positive reasonable grounds decision from the National Referral Mechanism stating that they may be a victim of modern slavery and human trafficking must not be removed from the United Kingdom on the basis of the Rwanda Treaty until a conclusive grounds decision has been made.
- (2) A person with a positive conclusive grounds decision from the National Referral Mechanism that they are a victim of modern slavery and human trafficking must not be removed from the United Kingdom on the basis of the Rwanda Treaty without a decision-maker considering whether such removal would negatively affect the physical health, mental health or safety of that person, including in particular the risk of re-trafficking.
- (3) If the decision-maker makes a finding that any of the factors in subsection (2) apply to that person they must not be removed from the United Kingdom under the Rwanda Treaty without their consent.

9 Exemption for agents, allies and employees of the UK Overseas

10 Consequential provision
