[Amendments marked ★ are new or have been altered]

Clause 2

LORD LUCAS

★ Clause 2, page 3, line 28, at end insert –

“(1A) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring a data holder to communicate (to the extent that they have the data required to do this) in a specified manner with all or a subset of the customers for whom they hold data.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is to enable communication with customers to ascertain, for instance, whether regulations have been complied with or, for example in the case of the Student Loans Company, to enable research into the outcomes of courses that they have funded.

Clause 80

LORD LUCAS

★ Clause 80, page 95, line 23, at end insert –

“(e) communicate to the data subject the fact that automated decision-making has been involved, the automated decision-making system’s reasoning in reaching the conclusion that it has, and the extent of any human involvement.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure that, for example, a job applicant who has been rejected by an automated system is given clear reasons for the rejection.

After Clause 132

LORD LUCAS

★ After Clause 132, insert the following new Clause –

“Data dictionary

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations establishing the definitions of terms used to describe data, and may require that these definitions are used in relation to –
 - (a) Parts 2 (digital verification services) and 4 (registers of births and deaths) of this Act, and
 - (b) public data in general.
- (2) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is to ensure consistency of definition of key terms (as requested by CoPilot) across government and over time, e.g. definitions of “sex” and “gender”.

LORD LUCAS

★ After Clause 132, insert the following new Clause –

“Fraud reporting

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring all reports of attempted fraud to be logged on a central database.
- (2) If regulations are made under subsection (1), the Secretary of State must, annually, lay a report before Parliament on the levels and types of fraud attempted, success rates, and action taken to combat it.
- (3) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is to raise the standard of recording of online fraud and to focus attention on combating it.

LORD LUCAS

★ After Clause 132, insert the following new Clause –

“Schools admissions data

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision requiring all schools admissions authorities in England to contribute to a public register, online and in a specified format, by 1 September each year, their schools admissions rules for the forthcoming year and the outcomes of their schools admissions process for the year just beginning.
- (2) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is to create a national register of schools admissions rules and outcomes, so that parent may obtain a complete and consistent picture of which schools are likely to be available to their children.
