

Supplementary written evidence submitted by the British Retail Consortium (NDRB04)

Thank you for the opportunity to give evidence to the Committee earlier today.

As agreed in our session, we have set out below some additional data providing a breakdown from independent analysis which we commissioned of the number of retail, hospitality and leisure properties and their rateable values affected by the proposed measures.

	RHL properties below £51K RV	RHL properties between £51K RV and £499,999 RV	Total number of beneficiary properties	Large retail properties above £500K	Large hospitality and leisure properties above £500K	Non RHL properties above £500K
Number of Properties (1000s)	215	68	282	4	1	12
Of which retail	156	42	198
Of which hospitality and leisure	58	26	85
Rateable Value (£Bn)	4.9	8.6	13.6	4.6	0.8	20.1
Of which retail	3.5	5.7	9.2
Of which hospitality and leisure	1.4	3.0	4.4

Note: Due to rounding, some figures may not sum.

We would be pleased to provide additional information if that would be of assistance.

Tom Ironside
Director of Business and Regulation
British Retail Consortium

11 December 2024