Clause 2

LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH
BARONESS LAWLOR

The above-named Lords give notice of their intention to oppose the Question that Clause 2 stand part of the Bill.

After Clause 2

LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

28 After Clause 2, insert the following new Clause –

“Cases where family reunion status must not be granted

Notwithstanding the provisions in section 1(5)(a), the Secretary of State must not grant family reunion status to any person, who, within a period of the last ten years, has been removed from the United Kingdom by and after due legal process for any of the following grounds –

- (a) breach of immigration conditions;
- (b) overstaying a visa;
- (c) illegal entry;
- (d) criminal conviction(s);
- (e) being deemed not conducive to the public good.”

LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

29 After Clause 2, insert the following new Clause –

“Decision relating to a person’s age

Any changes under section 3(2) of the Immigration Act 1971 made in accordance with section 1 of this Act must ensure that a family member’s leave to enter and remain cannot be granted unless –

- (a) an age assessment, made under section 50 or 51 of the Nationality and Borders Act 2022 has been undertaken within a period of 48 hours of an application for family reunion status being made, under section 1 of this Act, and where the relevant authority, as noted in that Act, has reasonable grounds for doubting the stated age of the person seeking such status, and
- (b) such a relevant authority deems the assessment to be satisfactory for the purposes of accurately assessing that person’s age on the day of the assessment.”

LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

30 After Clause 2, insert the following new Clause –

“Duty to collect data on family reunion status recipients

The Secretary of State must report on a quarterly basis and lay before Parliament anonymised details of each person granted family reunion status in the previous 12 months, specifically but not exclusively to include –

- (a) country of origin;
- (b) age when the claim was first made;
- (c) accommodation status;
- (d) current geographical location by local authority area;

- (e) financial cost to the public purse of housing and other public services provision;
- (f) criminal record where applicable;
- (g) progress on immigration status, including issue of Refugee Travel Document;
- (h) progress on integration status where applicable, including those persons seeking permission to work and study and those on volunteer programmes.”

LORD MURRAY OF BLIDWORTH

31 After Clause 2, insert the following new Clause—

“Integration Support Review

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within 12 months of this Act coming into force, lay before Parliament a report on the success of the integration of refugees and their families reunited under this Act.
- (2) The report must consider the progress of refugees in—
  - (a) English language training,
  - (b) obtaining employment, and
  - (c) educational attainment for those under 18 years old.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure that family reunion aligns with a broader strategy to promote successful integration into British society.

LORD MURRAY OF BLIDWORTH

32 After Clause 2, insert the following new Clause—

“National security and public order safeguards

- (1) The Secretary of State must refuse an application for family reunion where there is evidence that granting the application would—
  - (a) pose a threat to national security, or
  - (b) undermine public order or safety in the United Kingdom.
- (2) In assessing such evidence, the Secretary of State may rely on intelligence or information provided by United Kingdom security agencies.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment addresses concerns about security risks and ensures that family reunification does not inadvertently compromise national safety.
