Clause 16

BARONESS PIDGEON

★ Clause 16, page 14, line 25, at end insert –

“154B Consideration of operator size in grant allocation

- (1) In exercising their powers under section 154A, a local transport authority in England may have regard to the size of the operator when determining the amount of grant and the conditions attached to it.
- (2) In particular, local transport authorities may –
 - (a) give priority to small operators to ensure the sustainability and diversity of local transport services,
 - (b) adopt measures to protect small operators from disproportionate financial burdens or competition, and
 - (c) take into account the financial and operational capacity of small operators to meet service demands.
- (3) When determining what constitutes a small operator, a local transport authority may consider –
 - (a) the size of the operator’s fleet,
 - (b) the number of employees employed by the operator, and
 - (c) the operator’s annual turnover or other financial capacity.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment enables local transport authorities to prioritise small transport operators when allocating grants, ensuring their protection and promoting diversity in local transport services.

After Clause 27

BARONESS PIDGEON

After Clause 27, insert the following new Clause –

“Impact on rural areas

- (1) Within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report detailing the impacts of the provisions of this Act on rural areas.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “rural” refers to areas so defined by the Rural Urban Classification.
- (3) The report in subsection (1) must include, but is not limited to –
 - (a) an assessment of the level of bus service provision in rural areas including frequency, coverage, and accessibility;
 - (b) an evaluation of how the provisions of this Act affect access to public transport for residents in rural areas, with a focus on affordability, reliability, and inclusivity;

- (c) a review of the potential economic, social, and environmental impacts of any changes in transport services or infrastructure in rural areas as a result of this Act;
 - (d) recommendations for any further actions or policies that may be required to ensure that rural areas are not disproportionately impacted by the provisions of this Act.
- (4) The report must be accompanied by a statement from the Secretary of State on how the findings of the report will be addressed, including any further steps to mitigate negative impacts on rural areas, if applicable.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to publish a report within six months on the impacts of the Act on rural areas.

LORD BRADSHAW

★ After Clause 27, insert the following new Clause –

“Provision of grants for bus services: traffic reduction plan requirement

In the Transport Act 2000, after section 159 insert –

“159A Provision of grants for bus services: traffic reduction plan requirement

- (1) Where the Government has issued financial support for the provision of bus services, including in the form of grants, to local highway authorities, or other authorities deemed relevant by the Secretary of State, it must be subject to the condition that the recipient authority implements a traffic reduction strategy aimed at increasing bus speeds.
- (2) The strategy published under the provisions of subsection (1) must include –
 - (a) measures to reduce congestion and delays for bus services;
 - (b) provisions to improve bus priority and traffic flow;
 - (c) clear targets for improving bus speeds and service reliability.
- (3) The relevant authority must take reasonable steps to implement the strategy, and where it is unable to do so, it must provide a statement outlining the reasons for non-implementation, which must be made available to the Secretary of State.
- (4) If the authority fails to adequately implement the strategy or meet the agreed targets, the financial support may be reduced or revoked.
- (5) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to ensure consistency in the development and implementation of traffic reduction strategies.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires that financial support, including grants, issued by the Government to local highway authorities or other relevant bodies is conditional on the implementation of a traffic reduction strategy aimed at increasing bus speeds, with provisions for reporting and accountability if the strategy cannot be fully implemented.
