“(za) securing that products to which this section applies are safe;”

LORD LANSLEY

- Clause 1, page 1, line 8, at end insert –
“(1A) In considering whether regulations should be made under subsection (1), the Secretary of State must have regard to the likelihood of the United Kingdom being seen as a favourable place in which to develop, manufacture or supply products.”

- ★ Clause 1, page 2, line 13, at end insert –
““safe”, in relation to any products, means such that there is no risk, or no risk apart from one reduced to a minimum, that any of the following will (whether immediately or after a definite or indefinite period) cause the death of, or any personal injury to, any person whatsoever, that is to say –
- (a) the products,
 - (b) the keeping, use or consumption of the products,
 - (c) the assembly of any of the products which are, or are to be, supplied unassembled,
 - (d) any emission or leakage from the products or, as a result of the keeping, use or consumption of the products, from anything else, or

- (e) reliance on the accuracy of any measurement, calculation or other reading made by or by means of the products;”

Clause 2

LORD LANSLEY

Clause 2, page 3, line 26, at end insert –

- “(d) the identification of and availability, including licensing, of standard essential patents that relate to technology essential for implementing a technical standard.”

LORD LANSLEY

Clause 2, page 3, line 37, at end insert –

- “(7A) Provision made in reliance on subsection (1) may (among other things) identify product requirements by reference to international agreements or standards relating to the marketing or use of products, including agreements or standards as they have effect from time to time.”

After Clause 4

LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD

★ After Clause 4, insert the following new Clause –

“Product regulations: devolved administrations

- (1) Product regulations under section 1 may not be made unless and until the Secretary of State has consulted the devolved administrations as to their impact and effect on the marketing and use of products in the areas within the United Kingdom over which they have legislative competence.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations exclude the application of this Act to products to be marketed or used in areas within the United Kingdom over which the devolved administrations have legislative competence to enable effect to be given to an agreement that forms part of a common framework agreement.
- (3) A “common framework agreement” is a consensus between a Minister of the Crown and one or more devolved administrations as to how devolved or transferred matters previously governed by EU law are to be regulated.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that devolved administrations are consulted before regulations are made under this Part of the Act, and that common framework agreements receive the same protection to enable them to receive effect as they have under section 10 of the United Kingdom Internal Market Act 2020.

Clause 9

LORD LANSLEY

Clause 9, page 9, line 26, at end insert –

“(c) sections 48, 48B, 49, 50, 52, 53 and 54 of the Patents Act 1977 (licences of right and compulsory licences).”
