After Clause 4

LORD FOX
BARONESS PINNOCK

After Clause 4, insert the following new Clause –

“Impact assessment

- (1) The Secretary of State must publish and lay before Parliament an assessment of the impact of sections 1 to 4 of this Act on –
 - (a) businesses,
 - (b) high streets, and
 - (c) economic growth.
- (2) An impact assessment under subsection (1) must consider –
 - (a) the impact on different types of businesses, including small businesses;
 - (b) the impact on businesses operating mainly or solely on high streets;
 - (c) whether the provisions will have a measurable impact on economic growth.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, together with another in the name of Lord Fox to Clause 6, would require the Secretary of State to publish an impact assessment on sections 1 to 4 of the Act before they come into force.

BARONESS PINNOCK
LORD FOX

After Clause 4, insert the following new Clause –

“Sections 1 to 4: impact of retail, hospitality and leisure relief

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, conduct an assessment of the expected impact of sections 1 to 4 of this Act on relevant businesses.
- (2) The assessment must compare the amount of non-domestic rates expected to be paid by relevant businesses once sections 1 to 4 come into force with the amount paid in each financial year between 1 April 2020 and 31 March 2026, taking into account retail, hospitality and leisure relief.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report setting out the findings of the assessment.
- (4) In this section, a “relevant business” is a business occupying a qualifying retail, hospitality or leisure hereditament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is intended to assess the cumulative impact on businesses of the changes in this Bill with the expected removal of retail, hospitality and leisure relief.

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

★ After Clause 4, insert the following new Clause—

“Review of impact on businesses, high streets and economic growth

- (1) The Secretary of State must review the impact of sections 1 to 4 of this Act on—
