 (a) holds information about a child or information about another individual that relates to the child, and 15
 (b) considers that the information is relevant to safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the child.
- (2) The relevant person must ensure that the information is disclosed to another person to whom subsection (4) applies (“the recipient”) if and only so far as the relevant person considers that the disclosure may facilitate –
 (a) where the recipient is within subsection (4)(a) or (b), the exercise by the recipient of any of its relevant functions, or
 (b) where the recipient is within subsection (4)(c), the provision of services by the recipient pursuant to arrangements made by a person within subsection (4)(a) or (b) in connection with the exercise of any of that person’s relevant functions. 20 25
- (3) But the duty imposed by subsection (2) does not apply if the relevant person considers that the disclosure would be more detrimental to the child than not disclosing the information. 30
- (4) This subsection applies to –
 (a) a person listed in section 11(1) (persons and bodies under a duty to make arrangements to safeguard and promote welfare),
 (b) a person who is a designated childcare or education agency for the purposes of section 16E (local arrangements for safeguarding and promoting welfare of children), and 35

- (6) The relevant person must, in discharging any duty imposed on it by this section, have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State. 5
- (7) A disclosure of information under this section does not breach any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure.

- (9) This section does not authorise or require the disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the duties imposed by this section).

 - (a) relates to a child, and
 - (b) forms part of a set of similar identifiers that is of general application.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if— 30
 - (a) a designated person (see subsection (10)) processes information about a child, and
 - (b) the child is one to whom a consistent identifier of the description specified under subsection (1) relates.
- (4) If this subsection applies the designated person must include the consistent identifier in the information processed (but this is subject to subsections (5) to (7)). 35

- (6) Subsection (4) does not apply if the designated person considers that including the consistent identifier in the information processed would be more detrimental to the child than not including it.
- (7) The designated person need not comply with subsection (4) if –
- (a) it does not know the consistent identifier, and 5
 - (b) it reasonably considers that finding it out would cause unreasonable delay to the processing of the information.
- (8) A designated person's compliance with subsection (4) does not breach any obligation of confidence owed by the designated person.
- (9) This section does not authorise or require the processing of information if the processing would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether the processing would do so, take into account the duties imposed by this section). 10
- (10) In this section "designated person" means a person designated for the purposes of this section in regulations made by the Secretary of State. 15
- (11) A person may be designated as mentioned in subsection (10) only if the person is –

- (12) A designated person must, in discharging any duty imposed on it by this section, have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State. 25
- (13) Where a person (a "service provider") provides services pursuant to arrangements made by a designated person in connection with the exercise of any function of the designated person that relates to safeguarding or promoting the welfare of children, this section applies to the service provider as it applies to the designated person. 30
- (14) The reference in subsection (5) to the inclusion of a consistent identifier being likely to facilitate the exercise of a function is to it being likely to facilitate that exercise directly (rather than by means of a trial, study, audit or any other indirect means).
- (15) In this section – 35
- "processes", "processed" and "processing" are to be read in accordance with the meaning of "processing" in Parts 5 to 7 of the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3(4) and (14) of that Act);
