After Clause 6

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

After Clause 6, insert the following new Clause –

Clause 7

LORD HACKING

Clause 7, page 9, line 25, at end insert –

- “(d) a lease clause prescribing a rent increase in line with the Retail Price Index or the Consumer Price Index two months prior to the date of the rent increase coming into effect, subject to a minimum of 3% and a maximum of 8%;”

- (a) that the rent for a particular period of the tenancy must or may be greater than the rent for the previous period otherwise than by virtue of a notice, determination or agreement mentioned in subsection (4A), or
- (b) that the rent for a particular period of the tenancy, where greater than the rent for the previous period by virtue of a notice, determination or agreement mentioned in subsection (4A), must or may be greater than the rent for the previous period increased by the Bank of England Base Rate.”

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS GRENDER
BARONESS THORNHILL

Clause 7, page 10, line 4, at end insert –

- “(4F) It shall be an implied term of every assured tenancy to which this section applies that for a period of four years from the commencement of the tenancy the percentage increase between the existing rent and any new rent specified in a notice given under subsection (2) must not exceed whichever is the lesser of –
- (a) the percentage of the rate of inflation calculated by reference to the consumer price index since the date on which the existing rent took effect, or
 - (b) the percentage increase in median national earnings calculated over a three-year period by the UK Statistics Authority, ending on the date on which the notice was served.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides for in-tenancy rent increases to be index-linked on the basis of CPI or increases in national annual earnings. This avoids the uncertainties for a period of up to four years of rents being determined at unknown – and perhaps unaffordable – market levels.

Clause 8

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS THORNHILL

Clause 8, page 11, line 22, after “appropriate tribunal” insert “for a period of four years from the commencement of the tenancy”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment renders unnecessary an application to the First-Tier Tribunal where the proposed in-tenancy rent increase does not exceed a measure of inflation specified in section 13(4F) as inserted by another amendment in the name of Lord Best.

BARONESS WOLF OF DULWICH

Clause 8, page 11, line 31, at end insert –

- “(A4) The application to the appropriate tribunal under subsections (A1) and (A3) must first be reviewed by the Valuation Office Agency, who must terminate spurious applications.”

Member's explanatory statement

This probing amendment seeks to provide for a pre-appeal assessment process, to filter out appeals that have no prospect of success and avoid over-burdening tribunals.

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 11, line 31, at end insert –

- “(A4) Where the appropriate tribunal makes a determination on an application under subsection (A1) and the determination confirms the rent increase in the landlord's notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2), the tenant will be responsible for the reasonable tribunal costs of the landlord in defending the notice.”

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 12, line 32, leave out from “date” to end of line and insert “of the expiry of the proposed notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2).”

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Clause 8, page 12, line 34, leave out “, if lower than the tenancy rent,”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the requirement that agreed tenancy rents can only be decreased by the Tribunal, therefore removing the potential incentive for tenants to appeal all rent increases when they would only go down or stay the same.

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Clause 8, page 12, line 36, leave out “of the application” and insert “the Tribunal makes a determination”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would stop the Tribunal from being able to require landlords to make a backdated payment to a tenant where it determines that a rent amount is too high, despite the tenant having agreed to the rent amount when they agreed to the tenancy.

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 13, line 20, leave out from “13A(2),” to end of line 21

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Clause 8, page 13, line 20, leave out from “13A(2),” to the end of line 28 and insert “or

- (b) a date that the appropriate tribunal directs, if it appears to the tribunal that applying paragraph (a) would cause undue hardship to the tenant.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would stop the tribunal delaying the date that a rent increase would come into effect, removing the incentive for all tenants to appeal all rent increases to guarantee a delayed implementation.

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 8, page 13, line 20, leave out from “if” to end of line 21 and insert “the tribunal determines that the proposed rent is equal to or lower than the open-market rent, or”

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 13, leave out lines 22 to 25

LORD CARRINGTON

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 8, page 13, leave out lines 26 to 30 and insert –

- “(4) If the tribunal determines that the proposed rent is equal to or lower than the open-market rent –
 - (a) where the tenant has stated in the application under section 14(A3) that the tenant wishes to pay any uplifted rent in a single payment, the tenant must pay the uplifted rent on the first day of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of determination;
 - (b) in all other cases, the tribunal must order that the tenant must pay the uplifted rent in up to 12 equal instalments on the first day of up to 12 consecutive periods of the tenancy commencing on the first day of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of the determination.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that, if a rent challenge was unsuccessful, the reviewed rent would apply from the date that the increase was due to take effect, rather than the date of the end of the legal process. The uplifted rent would be paid over a period of up to 12 months unless the tenant elected in its application to the Tribunal to pay the amount in a single payment.

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 13, line 28, at end insert “but no later than the beginning of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of the determination, if the beginning of the new period specified in the notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2) is before the date of the determination.”

LORD HACKING

Clause 8, page 13, line 28, at end insert –

“(3A) Any outstanding rent payable under the lease following the determination and owed in accordance with subsection (3)(a) must be paid to the landlord in equal monthly instalments in the subsequent months, but no later than the end of a six month period from the date of the determination.”

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Revised version of the amendment printed on 5 February 2025

★ Clause 8, page 13, line 32, leave out “lower than” and insert “different to”

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 8, page 13, line 32, leave out from first “rent” to the end of line 33

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that, if the tribunal is asked to determine the rent following the service of a notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2), the new rent amount will be that which the tribunal determines is the open-market rent and such rent shall not be capped at the proposed rent specified in the notice by the Landlord.

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 8, page 13, line 40, at end insert –

““the rent difference” means the difference between the rent payable under the tenancy immediately before the determination is made and the new rent for each period of the tenancy;

“the uplifted rent” means the total of the rent difference for the period between the beginning of the new period specified in the notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2) and the day before the beginning of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of the determination.”

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Clause 8, page 13, line 41, at end insert –

“(12) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of –

- (a) the impact of this section on the tribunals responsible for the determination of rent, and

(13) The Secretary of State must lay the review made under subsection (12) and the Government’s response to the review before Parliament.

(14) The Secretary of State must consult with the Competition and Markets Authority on any measures necessary to ensure that tribunals are able to assess market rents without having a distorting effect on the market.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to conduct a review of the tribunals responsible for the determination of rent.

After Clause 8

After Clause 13

BARONESS JANKE
BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB

After Clause 13, insert the following Clause –

“Permission for home adaptations

- (1) The Housing Act 1988 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 16 insert –

“16A Home adaptations

- (1) It is an implied term of every assured tenancy that a landlord must give permission for adaptations where a local council has carried out a Home Assessment and recommends adaptations which constitute reasonable adjustments under the Equality Act 2010.
- (2) A tenant may appeal a landlord’s refusal to give permission for such adaptations.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that landlords of private and social tenancies provide permission for home adaptations for people who have disabilities where a Home Assessment has been carried out.

BARONESS JANKE
LORD BLACK OF BRENTWOOD

After Clause 13, insert the following new Clause –

“Right to request Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) installation

- (1) It is an implied term of every assured tenancy to which this section applies that –
 - (a) a tenant may request the installation of Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) at the dwelling-house if the tenant asks to do so in accordance with this section and the landlord consents;
 - (b) such consent is not to be unreasonably refused by the landlord;
 - (c) the landlord is to give or refuse consent in writing on or before the 28th day after the date of the request, except as provided by subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) Where the landlord reasonably requests further information from the tenant about the proposed FTTP installation on or before the 28th day after the date of the tenant’s request the landlord may delay giving or refusing consent until the 7th day after the date on which the tenant provides any further information that the landlord requests where the following circumstances apply –
 - (a) the installation of FTTP at the dwelling-house would require the landlord to obtain the consent of a superior landlord under the terms of a superior tenancy, and

- (b) the landlord seeks the consent of the superior landlord on or before the 28th day after the date of the tenant's request.
- (3) The landlord may delay giving or refusing consent until the 7th day after the date on which the landlord receives consent or refusal from the superior landlord.
- (4) Where the landlord and the tenant agree that the landlord may delay giving or refusing consent, the landlord may delay until whatever date is agreed between the landlord and the tenant.
- (5) Where more than one of subsections (2) to (4) apply, the landlord may delay until the latest date to which the landlord may delay giving or refusing consent under any of the subsections.
- (6) This section applies to every assured tenancy other than a tenancy of social housing, within the meaning of Part 2 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment introduces a right for tenants to request Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) installation, similar to the right to request keeping a pet, by ensuring that landlord consent for FTTP installation cannot be unreasonably refused and that decisions are made within a specified timeframe. This provision is intended to reduce delays in broadband infrastructure improvements in rented properties.

BARONESS JANKE
LORD BLACK OF BRENTWOOD

After Clause 13, insert the following new Clause –

“Requests for consent to FTTP installation: further provision

- (1) The provisions in section (Right to request Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) installation) do not limit the terms that may be agreed in relation to the installation of FTTP.
- (2) The tenant's request under section (Right to request Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) installation) must –
 - (a) be in writing;
 - (b) include a description of the proposed FTTP installation.
- (3) The circumstances in which it is reasonable for a landlord to refuse consent include those in which –
 - (a) the installation of FTTP would cause the landlord to be in breach of an agreement with a superior landlord;
 - (b) an agreement between the landlord and a superior landlord prohibits the installation of FTTP at the dwelling-house without consent of the superior landlord, and the landlord has taken reasonable steps to obtain that consent but the superior landlord has not given it.
- (4) In proceedings in which a tenant alleges that the landlord has breached the implied term created by section (Right to request Fibre to the Premises (FTTP) installation), the court may order specific performance of the obligation.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment relates to another in Baroness Janke's name on the provisions regarding the right to request FTTP installation.

Clause 15

LORD CROMWELL

Clause 15, page 25, line 6, at end insert “, or

- (iii) the dwelling house has been available for purchase on the open market at a fair price for not less than six months, the landlord has not had any suitable offers to purchase the dwelling house, and the landlord has offered the dwelling house back to the previous tenant on the same terms, including rent level, on which they previously occupied the dwelling-house.
- (1A) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(iii), the previous tenant or local authority retain the right for the courts to require evidence and to decide whether genuine attempts have been made to market and sell the property at a reasonable price and no offers at or above that price have been refused”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure that, with evidential safeguards included, the property would be made available to rent after 6 months. This seeks to sustain rather than contract the supply of suitable rental property.

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

Clause 15, page 26, line 11, at end insert –

“16GA Exemption for shared ownership leaseholders

- (1) Sections 16E and 16F do not apply to any relevant person who gives notice under Ground 1 or Ground 1A in Schedule 2 if that person is a tenant under a shared ownership lease on the date the notice is given.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “shared ownership lease” has the same meaning as in section 13 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to protect shared leaseholders whose sales fall through, as is common. The current drafting of clause 15 would leave the shared ownership leaseholder with an empty property if notice is given and the sale falls through.

Clause 17

LORD EHERTON
THE EARL OF KINNOULL

- ★ Clause 17, page 28, line 16, leave out “or being reckless as to whether the landlord would be able to do so,”

Member's explanatory statement

In the context of an offence where a person relies on a ground for possession in schedule 2 where the landlord would not be able to obtain an order for possession on that ground, this amendment removes recklessness from the offence. The offence could only be committed with actual knowledge.

LORD EHERTON
THE EARL OF KINNOULL

- ★ Clause 17, page 30, line 9, leave out “£40,000” and insert “£7,000”

- (2) For the purposes of this section, requiring a person to provide a guarantor includes accepting an offer by that person to provide a guarantor.
- (3) The circumstances are—

 - (b) that the person is required to pay rent in advance of one month’s rent or more,
 - (c) that on a reasonable assessment of their means the person’s income (including state benefits received and any other lawful source of income) is sufficient to enable them to pay the full rent due under the tenancy,

- (6) In this section—
 - a “guarantor” is a person who enters into a guarantee in relation to a relevant tenancy;
 - a “guarantee” is a contractual promise to be responsible for the performance of an obligation owed by the tenant to a relevant person under the tenancy if the tenant fails to perform the obligation;

- a “deposit scheme” includes a scheme whereby a sum payable by way of deposit or a bond or guarantee is provided by a local authority, registered charity or voluntary organisation for the purpose of providing security to a landlord for the performance of a tenant’s obligations under a tenancy; a “tenancy deposit” has the same meaning as in section 212(8) of the Housing Act 2004;
- “relevant person” has the meaning given by section 16M(1) of the 1988 Act.”

- (1) It is an implied term of every tenancy to which this section applies that a tenant is entitled to make a minor adaptation to the property without needing to obtain the consent of the landlord.
- (2) In this section, “minor adaptation” means a change to the structure, fixtures or contents of the property for the purpose of accommodating a disability (within the meaning of section 6 of the Equality Act 2010), where the cost of making the adaptation would not exceed an amount set by the Secretary of State in regulations.
- (3) This section applies to every assured tenancy other than a tenancy of social housing, within the meaning of Part 2 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would give a right to minor home adaptations for accommodating a disability.

- 57A In Schedule 3 to the Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 (enactments specified for the purposes of Part 1), in the suitable place insert –

“Tenant Fees Act 2019 (c.4)””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment integrates the Tenant Fees Act 2019 into Schedule 3 to the Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008. It enables a Primary Authority to support local authorities to give assured advice to lettings agents on achieving compliance under the Tenant Fees Act 2019. Providing this advice will support lettings businesses and reduce pressure on local authorities' enforcement teams.

- (3) Conduct does not breach the prohibition in subsection (1) if it consists only of—
- (a) one or more of the following things done by a person who does nothing in relation to the dwelling that is not mentioned in this paragraph—
