(1A) For the purposes of this section, a tenant who meets the student test when a tenancy is entered into has the same meaning as in Ground 4A in Schedule 1.”

Member's explanatory statement

- ★ Clause 2, page 2, line 30, leave out paragraph (a)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would retain social landlords' ability to demote tenancies for anti-social behaviour.

Schedule 1

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

LORD EVANS OF RAINOW
BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK

Schedule 1, page 178, line 31, leave out “six” and insert “nine”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment and another in the name of Lord Carrington would allow possession where the property is required for housing a person who, for the better performance of their duties, is required to be, or is by custom, housed by their employer. The definition of “service occupant” means there is an express term of the employee's contract of employment that they live in a particular residence from where they can better perform their duties, or if there is no such express term, one can be implied on the basis that it is essential that the employee lives in particular accommodation for the better performance of their duties. It also allows possession where the person will be employed as a keyworker, with the definition of a key worker including but not limited to NHS healthcare workers, education professionals and emergency services workers.

The definition of “service occupant” means there is an express term of the employee's contract of employment that they live in a particular residence from where they can better perform their duties, or if there is no such express term, one can be implied on the basis that it is essential that the employee lives in particular accommodation for the better performance of their duties. It also allows possession where the person will be employed as a keyworker, with the definition of a key worker including but not limited to NHS healthcare workers, education professionals and emergency services workers.

- Schedule 1, page 194, line 7, at end insert –

“New ground for possession for property which is required for a carer for the landlord or landlord’s family

- 24A After Ground 8 insert –

“Ground 8A

- (a) the landlord,
- (b) the landlord’s spouse, or
- (c) a member of the landlord’s family who is living with the landlord, where the dwelling-house is in sufficiently close proximity to the person requiring care to facilitate emergency callout.

For the purposes of this Schedule, “carer” means an adult providing personal care or nursing care to another person, who may be under the age of 18, under a voluntary or contracted arrangement.

The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the definition of carer above.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new ground for possession would allow the landlord to seek possession of a dwelling house where it is needed to house a carer for the landlord, or a member of the landlord's family, and the dwelling-house is in close proximity to the person requiring care.

THE EARL OF LEICESTER

Schedule 1, page 194, line 7, at end insert –

“New ground for possession for property with agreed change to non-residential use

24A After Ground 8 insert –

- (a) there is evidence of an approved planning application for the change of use, where one is required, or
- (b) there is a permitted development right under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 for the conversion of the property to the intended non-residential use.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would allow landlords to seek possession of a dwelling-house where it is intended that the use of the property, or the land on which it is situated, be changed to non-residential and there is permission from the relevant authorities to do so. This would include uses such as office space, commercial, and retail.

LORD JAMIESON

Schedule 1, page 194, line 7, at end insert –

“Possession for redevelopment and regeneration of private rented homes

24A After Ground 8 insert –

“Ground 8A

The following conditions are met –

- (c) advance social wellbeing by improving housing, public services, community facilities, and the overall quality of life for residents;

“Private landlord” means a landlord who is not a registered provider of social housing.””

Member's explanatory statement

Clause 6

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK
LORD JAMIESON

★ Clause 6, page 8, leave out lines 11 and 12

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment prevents the Secretary of State from expanding the definition of “relevant low-cost tenancy” by regulations.

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS GRENDER

Clause 6, page 8, line 18, at end insert –

- “(4F) It shall be an implied term of every assured tenancy to which this section applies that for a period of four years from the commencement of the tenancy the percentage increase between the existing rent and any new rent specified in a notice given under subsection (2) must not exceed whichever is the lesser of –

- (a) the percentage of the rate of inflation calculated by reference to the consumer price index since the date on which the existing rent took effect, or
- (b) the percentage increase in median national earnings calculated over a three-year period by the UK Statistics Authority, ending on the date on which the notice was served.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment provides for in-tenancy rent increases to be index-linked on the basis of CPI or increases in national annual earnings. This seeks to avoid the uncertainties for a period of up to four years of rents being determined at unknown – and potentially unaffordable – market levels.

Clause 7

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

Clause 7, page 9, line 36, after “tribunal” insert “for a period of four years from the commencement of the tenancy”

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

Clause 7, page 9, line 37, at end insert “save that no application may be made where the proposed new rent is not increased from the previous rent by a sum greater than that specified in section 13(4F)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment renders unnecessary an application to the First-Tier Tribunal where the proposed in-tenancy rent increase does not exceed a measure of inflation specified in section 13(4F) as inserted by another amendment in the name of Lord Best.

LORD BEST
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

Clause 7, page 10, line 7, at end insert –

- “(A4) A landlord of an assured tenancy other than a relevant low-cost tenancy may make application to the appropriate tribunal for the purpose of challenging the rent payable under section 13(4F) on grounds of “exceptional circumstances”.
- (A5) “Exceptional circumstances” in subsection (A4) shall be determined by the tribunal, including investment in substantial improvements to the dwelling-house.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would enable landlords to appeal to the First-Tier Tribunal in exceptional circumstances against the indexation of the rent for four years, as proposed in amendments in the name of Lord Best.

BARONESS WOLF OF DULWICH
BARONESS THORNHILL

Clause 7, page 10, line 7, at end insert –

- “(A4) The application to the appropriate tribunal under subsections (A1) and (A3) must first be reviewed by the Valuation Office Agency, who must terminate applications which the Agency considers to have no chance of success.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to provide for a pre-appeal assessment process, to filter out appeals that have no prospect of success and avoid over-burdening tribunals.

BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB

Clause 7, page 10, line 21, at end insert –

“(4A) In subsection (2)(b) at end insert –

- “(iii) any increase in the quality of the dwelling attributable to improvements made to upgrade the minimum energy efficiency that were not funded by the landlord but government or ECO grants, either in part or in sum, made within the previous two years.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would amend the Housing Act 1988 so that when determining rents tribunals must disregard any improvements funded by government grants, for a two year period.

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

Clause 7, page 11, line 12, leave out “, if lower than the tenancy rent,”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would enable the Tribunal to increase, as well as decrease, the tenancy rent when a tenant appeals to the Tribunal.

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

★ Clause 7, page 11, line 35, leave out from “13A(2),” to end of line 5 on page 12 and insert “, or

- (b) a date that the appropriate tribunal directs, if it appears to the tribunal that applying paragraph (a) would cause undue hardship to the tenant.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would stop the tribunal delaying the date that a rent increase would come into effect, removing the incentive for all tenants to appeal all rent increases to guarantee a delayed implementation.

LORD CARRINGTON
LORD HACKING

Clause 7, page 11, line 35, leave out from “if” to end of line 36 and insert “the tribunal determines that the proposed rent is equal to or lower than the open-market rent, or”

LORD CARRINGTON
LORD HACKING

Clause 7, page 11, line 38, leave out from “if” to end of line 2 on page 12 and insert “the tribunal determines that the proposed rent is higher than the open-market rent.”

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 7, page 12, leave out lines 3 to 7 and insert—

- “(4) If the tribunal determines that the proposed rent is equal to or lower than the open-market rent—
 - (a) where the tenant has stated in the application under section 14(A3) that the tenant wishes to pay any uplifted rent in a single payment, the tenant must pay the uplifted rent on the first day of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of determination;
 - (b) in all other cases, the tribunal must order that the tenant must pay the uplifted rent in up to 12 equal instalments on the first day of up to 12 consecutive periods of the tenancy commencing on the first day of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of the determination.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that, if a rent challenge was unsuccessful, the reviewed rent would apply from the date that the increase was due to take effect, rather than the date of the end of the legal process. The uplifted rent would be paid over a period of up to 12 months unless the tenant elected in their application to the Tribunal to pay the amount in a single payment.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 7, page 12, line 10, at end insert –

- “(5A) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision so as to substitute, in relation to relevant tenancies, a different date as the effective date.
- (5B) The effective date may not be earlier than the beginning of the new period specified in the notice served on the tenant under section 13(2) or 13A(2).
- (5C) Regulations under subsection (5A) –
 - (a) may amend this section;
 - (b) may make different provision for different purposes;
 - (c) may make supplemental, consequential, incidental, transitional, transitory or saving provision;
 - (d) are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (5D) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (5A) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables the Secretary of State to amend the Housing Act 1988 so as to substitute a different date from which new rent is payable. The substituted date must not be earlier than the date specified in the notice of the new rent given by the landlord. The new date will only apply to applications to challenge the rent made on or after the date on which the regulations come into force.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 7, page 12, line 13, at end insert –

- ““the effective date” means a date for the time being specified in subsection (3)(b) as the date from which the rent payable takes effect;”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment tabled in my name inserting a new regulation-making power into the Housing Act 1988 in relation to the effective date for proposed new rent.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 7, page 12, line 17, at end insert –

- ““relevant tenancies” means tenancies in relation to which an application under section 14(A3) is made on or after the date on which the regulations under subsection (5A) come into force.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment tabled in my name inserting a new regulation-making power into the Housing Act 1988 in relation to the effective date for proposed new rent.

LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 7, page 12, line 17, at end insert –

““the rent difference” means the difference between the rent payable under the tenancy immediately before the determination is made and the new rent for each period of the tenancy;

“the uplifted rent” means the total of the rent difference for the period between the beginning of the new period specified in the notice under section 13(2) or 13A(2) and the day before the beginning of the first new period of the tenancy which begins on or after the date of the determination.”

After Clause 7

LORD HACKING

After Clause 7, insert the following new Clause –

“Restrictions on rent increase

When a landlord has obtained possession of a property pursuant to Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by Schedule 1 of this Act) on either –

- (a) Ground 1 (occupation by landlord or family), or
- (b) Ground 1A (sale of dwelling house), and the landlord is unable to place a family member in the property or sell the property and is putting the property again into the letting market, the landlord is prohibited from raising the rent of the property for a period of 12 months from the date of the notice to quit as served on the original tenant.”

Clause 8

LORD HOWARD OF RISING

Clause 8, page 11, line 14, leave out “of the application” and insert “the Tribunal makes a determination”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would stop the Tribunal from being able to require landlords to make a backdated payment to a tenant where it determines that a rent amount is too high, despite the tenant having agreed to the rent amount when they agreed to the tenancy.

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK
LORD JAMIESON

- ★ Clause 8, page 12, line 23, after “for” insert “more than six months”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would allow a person to mutually agree a tenancy with a landlord which requires them to pay up to six months of rent in advance.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 8, page 12, line 24, at end insert –

“(za) to a tenancy entered into before the commencement date (which has the same meaning as in section 146(3) of the Renters' Rights Act 2025),”

Member's explanatory statement

In line with the original policy intention, this amendment ensures that existing leases (those entered into before the commencement of Chapter 1 of Part 1) will fall outside the scope of the new section 4B.

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK
LORD JAMIESON

- ★ Clause 8, page 13, line 25, leave out “making provision about” and insert “expanding”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment limits the Secretary of State's power to change the descriptions of rent due which are not prohibited by this Act to expanding the definition rather than limiting it.

After Clause 8

BARONESS SCOTT OF BYBROOK
LORD JAMIESON

After Clause 8, insert the following new Clause –

“Impact of section 8: operation of rent tribunals

- (1) The Secretary of State must commission a review of –
 - (a) the impact of section 8 (prohibition of rent in advance after lease entered into) on the tribunals responsible for the determination of rent, and
 - (b) the ability of tribunals to manage an increase in applications for a review of a proposed rent increase.
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay the review made under subsection (1) and the Government's response to the review before Parliament.

- (3) The Secretary of State must consult with the Competition and Markets Authority on any measures necessary to ensure that tribunals are able to assess market rents without having a distorting effect on the market.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to conduct a review of the effect of clause 8 on tribunals responsible for the determination of rent.

Clause 9

LORD HACKING
LORD CARRINGTON

Clause 9, page 15, line 39, at end insert –

- “(4A) For the avoidance of doubt, if a tenant fails to pay the deposit and the first month’s rent after the lease has been entered into but before the tenancy start date as stated in the lease, the landlord is not required to grant possession of the property of the tenancy and if the tenant continues to fail to pay the deposit and the first month’s rent for a further 28 days then the landlord is entitled to treat the lease as annulled.”

Clause 11

BARONESS MILLER OF CHILTHORNE DOMER

Clause 11, page 18, line 9, at end insert –

- “(5A) The circumstances in which it is unreasonable for a superior landlord to refuse consent through the landlord include, but are not limited to, the following –
- (a) a superior landlord’s personal opinion of a tenant;
 - (b) a superior landlord’s personal opinion of pets or specific species;
 - (c) a generalised fear of damage to the property;
 - (d) a pre-emptive fear of complaints from neighbours relating to noise, fouling or anti-social behaviour caused by the animal;
 - (e) a superior landlord’s experience with a previous tenant about pets;
 - (f) generalised or unsubstantiated animal welfare concerns.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment sets out examples of when it is unreasonable for a superior landlord to refuse consent, providing clearer guidance and limiting arbitrary or prejudiced refusals.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL

Clause 11, page 18, line 10, leave out “other than a tenancy of social housing”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to allow social housing tenants the same rights to request consent to keep a pet as other tenants.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 11, page 18, line 35, leave out from beginning to end of line 28 on page 19

Member's explanatory statement

This removes provision inserted into the Housing Act 1988 making it an implied term of an assured tenancy (other than a tenancy of social housing) that a tenant will comply with conditions relating to pet insurance where the landlord has consented to the tenant keeping a pet and given written notice of the condition.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL

Clause 11, page 19, leave out lines 1 to 4

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to remove a requirement on tenants to have pet damage insurance.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL

Clause 11, page 19, line 9, at end insert—

- “(c) that the tenant makes an additional pet damage deposit which—
 - (i) can be used to make good pet damage,
 - (ii) must be of equivalent value to 3 weeks of rent,
 - (iii) cannot be subject to the limits for deposits in tenancy agreements, and
 - (iv) is subject to the rules governing deposits in tenancy agreements, for purposes of monies handled.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to introduce a new option of a landlord pet damage deposit.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL

Clause 11, page 19, line 28, at end insert—

- “(2A) Any additional insurance coverage constituting a condition of consent under this section must—
 - (a) operate in excess of the original agreed deposit specified in the tenancy agreement and respond in the same way;
 - (b) have a minimum insured sum of equivalent value to six months of rent.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to provide greater detail for insurance procured by a landlord, the cost of which is paid by the tenant.

THE EARL OF KINNOULL

Clause 11, page 19, line 28, at end insert —

“(2A) In this section, “premium” includes insurance premium taxes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to define the meaning of the word “premium” in line with the definition used in contractual insurance documentation.

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 11, page 19, leave out lines 35 to 40

Member's explanatory statement

This is consequential on the amendment in my name which would remove the provision to be inserted into the Housing Act 1988 relating to indemnity and insurance for pets.

Clause 12

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Leave out Clause 12

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment removes the provisions to be inserted into the Tenant Fees Act 2019 to allow tenants to make payments relating to pet insurance in consequence of the amendment in my name which would remove the provision to be inserted into the Housing Act 1988 relating to indemnity and insurance for pets.

After Clause 12

LORD TOPE

After Clause 12, insert the following new Clause —

“Permission for home adaptations

(1) The Housing Act 1988 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 16 insert –

“16A Home adaptations

- (1) It is an implied term of every assured tenancy that a landlord must give permission for adaptations where a local council has carried out a Home Assessment and recommends adaptations which constitute reasonable adjustments under the Equality Act 2010.
- (2) A tenant may appeal a landlord’s refusal to give permission for such adaptations.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that landlords of private and social tenancies provide permission for home adaptations for people who have disabilities where a Home Assessment has been carried out.

Clause 13

BARONESS TAYLOR OF STEVENAGE

Clause 13, page 20, line 15, leave out “16C” and insert “16B”

Member's explanatory statement

This is consequential on the amendment in my name which would remove the provision to be inserted into the Housing Act 1988 relating to indemnity and insurance for pets.

Clause 14

LORD CROMWELL
LORD PANNICK
LORD HACKING

Clause 14, page 23, line 22, at end insert “, or

- (iii) the dwelling house has been demonstrably available for purchase on the open market at a fair price for not less than six months and the landlord has not had any suitable offers to purchase the dwelling house.
- (1A) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(iii), the previous tenant or local authority retain the right for the courts to require evidence and to decide whether genuine attempts have been made to market and sell the property at a reasonable price and no offers at or above that price have been refused.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment proposes a 6, rather than a 12, month prohibition on renting out an unsold property to make it impossible for a landlord to benefit financially by falsely claiming to be selling a property in order to require a tenant to vacate. The amendment includes evidential safeguards to ensure sale attempts are genuine and to support greater availability of property for rent.

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

Clause 14, page 24, line 28, at end insert —

“16GA Exemption for shared ownership leaseholders

- (1) Sections 16E and 16F do not apply to any relevant person who gives notice under Ground 1A in Schedule 2 if on the date such notice is given that person is a tenant under a shared ownership lease.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “shared ownership lease” has the same meaning as in section 13 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 and “tenant” shall be construed accordingly.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to protect shared leaseholders whose sales fall through, as is common. The current drafting of clause 14 would leave the shared ownership leaseholder with an empty property if notice is given and the sale falls through.

After Clause 16
