PART 1

TENANCY REFORM

CHAPTER 1

ASSURED TENANCIES

End of certain kinds of assured tenancy

1 Assured tenancies to be periodic with rent period not exceeding a month

In the 1988 Act, before section 5 insert—

“4A Assured tenancies to be periodic with rent period not exceeding a month

- (1) Terms of an assured tenancy are of no effect so far as they provide—10
 - (a) for a tenancy to be a fixed term tenancy, or
 - (b) for periods of the tenancy to be different from the periods for which rent is payable (“rent periods”).
- (2) Where terms of an assured tenancy are of no effect by virtue of subsection (1)(a) or (b), the tenancy has effect as a periodic tenancy under which the periods of the tenancy are the same as the rent periods.15
- (3) Terms of an assured tenancy which provide for the rent periods are of no effect unless each rent period is—

- (a) a period of 28 days or shorter, or
 - (b) a monthly rent period.
- (4) Those terms may provide for different rent periods at different times during the assured tenancy (but each rent period must be permitted by subsection (3)). 5
- (5) Where terms of an assured tenancy are of no effect by virtue of subsection (3), the tenancy has effect as if it provided –
 - (a) for successive rent periods of one month beginning with the first day of the tenancy, and
 - (b) for the rent for each such rent period – 10
 - (i) to be the amount calculated in accordance with the formula in subsection (6), and
 - (ii) to be due on the first day of the period.
- (6) The formula is –

$$\frac{R}{D} \times 30.42$$

15

where –

 - R is the rent that would have been due for the first rent period of the tenancy under the terms that are of no effect by virtue of subsection (3);
 - D is the number of whole days in that period. 20- (7) Except as provided by subsections (1) and (3), nothing in this section limits any right of the landlord and the tenant to vary a term of a tenancy by agreement.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, terms of an assured tenancy provide for “monthly” rent periods if they provide for rent to be payable for successive periods of one month, disregarding any provision for the first period to be a different period not exceeding 30 days.” 25

2 Abolition of assured shorthold tenancies

In the 1988 Act –

- (a) omit section 6A (demotion to assured shorthold tenancy because of anti-social behaviour); 30
- (b) omit Chapter 2 of Part 1 (assured shorthold tenancies).

Grounds for possession

3 Changes to grounds for possession

- (1) Schedule 1 contains amendments of Schedule 2 to the 1988 Act (grounds for possession of dwelling-houses let on assured tenancies). 35

- (2) In section 7 of the 1988 Act (orders for possession) –
- (a) in subsection (3), for “subsections (5A) and (6)” substitute “the following provisions of this section”;
 - (b) in subsection (4) omit “, subject to subsections (5A) and (6) below,”;
 - (c) in subsection (5) omit the words from “and Part IV” to the end”; 5
 - (d) after subsection (5) insert –
 - “(5ZA) The court may not make an order for possession of a dwelling-house on any of Grounds 1 to 5H or Ground 6A where –
 - (a) a smallholding was previously let to the tenant under a tenancy to which the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 applies (“the agricultural tenancy”), 10
 - (b) the agricultural tenancy came to an end as a result of the operation of a notice to quit given in case A in Part 1 of Schedule 3 to that Act (“case A”), 15
 - (c) the assured tenancy was granted immediately after the agricultural tenancy came to an end, and
 - (d) the dwelling-house is let under the assured tenancy –
 - (i) by the person who was the landlord under the agricultural tenancy (“the former agricultural landlord”), or 20
 - (ii) by another person pursuant to a contract or other agreement entered into with the former agricultural landlord under which –
 - (A) the dwelling-house is to be let as suitable alternative accommodation for the purposes of paragraph (b) of case A, and 25
 - (B) this subsection is to apply.
 - (5ZB) The court may not make an order for possession of a dwelling-house let on an assured tenancy on any of Grounds 1 to 5H or Ground 6A where, on the basis of the proposed let of the dwelling-house on that tenancy, the dwelling-house was deemed to be suitable alternative accommodation under paragraph 1(c) of Part 4 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1985 for the purposes of section 84(2)(b) and (c) of that Act.”; 30 35
 - (e) in subsection (5A) –
 - (i) in paragraph (a), for “, 2, 5” substitute “to 5H, 6A, 6B”

- (5C) In relation to the making of an order for possession of a dwelling-house let on an assured periodic tenancy arising under Schedule 10 to the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, Ground 6 is to apply as if—
- (a) in paragraph (b), the words “, but only in a case where section 7(5ZA) applies in relation to the tenancy” were omitted; 5
 - (b) in the general redevelopment conditions, paragraph (f) was omitted;
 - (c) in the landlord’s acquisition condition, in paragraph (a), the reference to the grant of the tenancy is a reference to the grant of the long residential tenancy which existed immediately before the assured periodic tenancy arose. 10
- (5D) If the only grounds for possession which the court is satisfied are established are either or both of Grounds 7A and 14 in Schedule 2, the court may not make an order for possession to take effect within— 15
- (a) the period of 14 days beginning with the date of service of the notice under section 8; or 20
 - (b) where the court has exercised the power conferred by section 8(1)(b), the period of 14 days beginning—
 - (i) if a purported notice of possession (within the meaning given by section 16M) was served on the tenant and the court considers it just and equitable, with the date on which the notice was served; 25
 - (ii) otherwise, with the date on which the proceedings for possession began.
- (5E) In subsection (5C), a reference to a “long residential tenancy” is a reference to a tenancy to which Schedule 10 to the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 applies.” 30
- (g) omit subsections (6), (6A), (6B) and (7).
- (3) In section 8 of the 1988 Act (notice of proceedings for possession)—

 - (b) in subsection (3)(b) for “(3A) to (4B)” substitute “(4) to (4AA)”;
 - (c) omit subsection (3A);
 - (d) in subsection (4)—
 - (i) for “Ground 14” substitute “either or both of Grounds 7A and 14”; 40
 - (ii) after “whether” insert “with or”;
 - (iii) omit “or with any ground other than Ground 7A”;

(e) for subsections (4A) and (4B) substitute –

“(4AA) If a notice under this section does not specify Ground 7A or 14 in Schedule 2, the date specified in the notice as mentioned in subsection (3)(b) must not be before the end of the longest period shown in the following table for any ground specified in the notice.

In the 1988 Act, in section 9A –

8 Prohibition of rent in advance after lease entered into (except initial rent)

In the 1988 Act, after section 4A (inserted by section 1 of this Act) insert –

“4B Assured tenancy: prohibition of rent in advance (except initial rent)

- (1) Terms of an assured tenancy which provide for when rent is due are of no effect so far as they provide for rent to be due in advance. 5
- (2) But subsection (1) does not apply –
 - (a) to a tenancy entered into before the commencement date (which has the same meaning as in section 145(3) of the Renters' Rights Act 2025),
 - (b) to an excepted tenancy, or 10
 - (c) to terms of any other assured tenancy so far as they provide for initial rent to be due during the permitted pre-tenancy period.
- (3) Where terms of an assured tenancy providing for when the rent for a rent period is due are of no effect by virtue of this section, the tenancy has effect as if it provided for the rent for that rent period to be due on the substitute rent day for that rent period. 15
- (4) In a case where the terms of the tenancy (after taking account of section 4A) are such that –
 - (a) one or more of the periods of the tenancy will be compliant rent periods, and 20
 - (b) the compliant rent periods have a regular pattern, the regular rent day which falls during a rent period is the “substitute rent day” for the rent period.
- (5) In any other case, the first day of a rent period is the “substitute rent day” for the rent period. 25
- (6) The compliant rent periods of a tenancy “have a regular pattern” if those periods meet the following two conditions –
 - (a) all of the compliant rent periods will be the same length (and, for this purpose, all periods of one month are the same length); 30
 - (b) the rent for all of the compliant periods will be due –
 - (i) on the same day during each of the periods (such as the same day of the week in a weekly period or the same date in the month in a monthly period), or
 - (ii) on the same description of day during each of the periods (such as the last day, or first weekday, of a period); 35 and that day, or day of that description, is the “regular rent day”.
- (7) The condition in subsection (6)(a) is met even if the first period of the tenancy is of a different length from all the other compliant periods; 40 and, in such a case, the condition in subsection (6)(b) is met even if the rent for the first period of the tenancy is due on a different day, or description of day, from all the other compliant periods.

- (8) For provision enabling a holding deposit to be used to pay initial rent due during the permitted pre-tenancy period, see Schedule 2 to the Tenant Fees Act 2019.

- (9) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, amend this section for the purpose of making provision about the descriptions of rent due in advance to which subsection (1) does not apply.
- (10) Regulations under subsection (9) –

 - (a) may make different provision for different purposes;
 - (b) are to be made by statutory instrument.

10
- (11) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (9) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

15
- (12) In this paragraph –

 - “compliant rent period”: a rent period is a compliant rent period if the rent for the period is due during the period – and, in determining this, the effect of this section on when rent is due must be disregarded;
 - “due in advance”, in relation to rent, means due before the rent period for which it is payable;
 - “excepted tenancy” means –
 - (a) an assured tenancy of social housing (within the meaning of Part 2 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008) if the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing;
 - (b) an assured tenancy granted pursuant to Part 7 of the Housing Act 1996 (homelessness);
 - “initial rent” means rent that is payable for –
 - (a) the first rent period, or
 - (b) any later rent period which ends during the initial 28 day period;

and here “initial 28 day period” means the period of 28 days beginning with the first day of the first rent period;
 - “permitted pre-tenancy period” means the period that –
 - (a) begins when the tenancy is entered into, and
 - (b) ends with the day before the first day of the tenancy;
 - “regular rent day” has the meaning given in subsection (6)(b);
 - “rent period” means a period for which rent is payable under the assured tenancy;

 - (b) prohibiting the tenant from being a benefits claimant.

- (d) pursuant to an agreement between any of those landlords and the employer, and either — 25

- (a) the tenant has ceased to be in that work or employment, or
- (b) the tenancy was granted for the purpose of providing the tenant with accommodation during the early period of their work or employment, that purpose has been fulfilled and the landlord seeking possession intends to let the dwelling-house to another current or future worker, self-employed person or employee of the employer. 30

In this ground, “the employer” means the tenant’s employer at the time the tenant entered the tenancy or the person with whom the contract for work was entered into.” 35

- (3) After the second paragraph of the new Ground 5C insert—

“This ground also applies to the letting of a dwelling-house to a tenant in consequence of the tenant’s service in the office of constable, but with the following modifications.

For the purpose of the additional RSL condition, accommodation – 30

- (a) is let “with adequate security of tenure” if it is let –
