Clause 41

BARONESS KEELEY

★ Clause 41, page 33, line 10, at end insert—

“(5A) Regulations under this section may not make any provision that would place any duty on a care home or hospice regulated by the Care Quality Commission to perform any function under or in connection with this Act on their premises.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure there is no obligation on a care home or hospice in England to permit the provision of assistance in accordance with this Act on their premises.

Clause 42

BARONESS KEELEY

★ Clause 42, page 33, line 30, at end insert—

“(4A) Regulations under this section may not make any provision that would place any duty on a care home or hospice regulated by Care Inspectorate Wales to perform any function under or in connection with this Act on their premises.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure there is no obligation on a care home or hospice in Wales to permit the provision of assistance in accordance with this Act on their premises.

After Clause 42

BARONESS KEELEY

- ★ After Clause 42, insert the following new Clause —

“No obligation to provide assistance: care homes and hospices

No care home or hospice which is regulated —

- (a) by the Care Quality Commission in England, or
- (b) by Care Inspectorate Wales in Wales, is under any duty to participate in the provision of any assistance or the performance of any function under or in connection with this Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to ensure there is no obligation on a care home or hospice in England or Wales to permit the provision of assistance in accordance with this Act on their premises.

After Clause 50

LORD FORSYTH OF DRUMLEAN

- ★ After Clause 50, insert the following new Clause —

“Funding for provisions of this Act: protection for hospice funding

No funding required for the implementation or operation of this Act may be redirected from existing budgets allocated to hospice care.”

Clause 54

LORD CAMPBELL-SAVOURS

- ★ Clause 54, page 40, line 6, after “43” insert “, or (Expiry and renewal)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is linked to another in the name of Lord Campbell-Savours, which provides that for the first three years after the Act is passed, the Act is subject to three annual renewals. This amendment seeks to ensure that the regulations-making provision for the renewal of the Act is subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

After Clause 58

LORD CAMPBELL-SAVOURS

- ★ After Clause 58, insert the following new Clause —

“Expiry and renewal

- (1) This Act is repealed unless renewed under the provisions set out in this section.

- (2) Within three months of the first, second and third anniversary of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State, must, by regulations, make provision for the renewal of this Act.
- (3) If the regulations are not approved within three months of the relevant anniversary, then the Act is repealed.
- (4) If the Act is renewed following each of the three anniversaries then the Act remains permanently in force.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to provide that for the first three years after the Act is passed, the Act is subject to three annual renewals. If on one of these occasions the Act is not renewed, it permanently expires. Following three years and three successful renewals, the Act remains permanently in force.
