After Clause 41

LORDS AMENDMENT 37

37

After Clause 41, insert the following new Clause –

“Collection of data on overseas students subject to visa conditions and immigration rules

- (1) The Secretary of State must collate and publish –
 - (a) the number of overseas students who have had their student visas revoked as a result of the commission of criminal offences,
 - (b) the number of overseas students who have been deported following the revocation of their student visas, and
 - (c) the number of overseas students detained pending deportation following the revocation of their student visas.
- (2) Data published under subsection (1) must be broken down by nationality.
- (3) For the purposes of this section –

“overseas students” means any person who is not a British citizen who has been granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom for the purposes of partaking in an educational course;

“student visa” has the same meaning as in the Immigration Rules.”

COMMONS REASON

The Commons disagree to Lords Amendment 37 for the following Reason –

37A

Because the Commons do not consider it appropriate for there to be a statutory requirement to publish the data listed in the Amendment, the release of which should be determined within the wider publication of official statistics on migration.
