[Amendments marked ★ are new or have been altered]

After Clause 16

LORD YOUNG OF ACTON

After Clause 16, insert the following new Clause –

“Access to content of democratic importance, news publisher content and journalistic content related to elections

- (1) Within 12 months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must consider what primary and secondary legislation may need to be amended to ensure under-18 year-olds have access to online content of democratic importance, news publisher content and journalistic content relating to elections.

- (2) In particular, the Secretary of State must consider whether current legislation restricts access to online content of democratic importance, news publisher content and journalistic content related to elections to individuals aged 18 and over.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to propose a review of whether existing legislation should be amended where it currently “age-gates” online democratic, news publisher and journalistic content related to elections to those aged 18 and over, given that the bill proposes to lower the voting age to 16.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE
LORD RENNARD

After Clause 16, insert the following new Clause —

“Report on supporting the extension of the franchise to 16 and 17 year olds

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within 12 months of the day on which this Act is passed, publish a report on the extension of the franchise to 16 and 17 year olds under this Act.
- (2) The report published under subsection (1) must include evaluation of —
 - (a) measures to promote awareness among relevant persons of the extension of the franchise,
 - (b) progress in any necessary changes required to strengthen civic education in schools and educational settings available to relevant persons, and
 - (c) the registration of —
 - (i) 18 to 25 year olds,
 - (ii) 16 and 17 year olds, and
 - (iii) 14 and 15 year olds.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, relevant persons are children and young people who —
 - (a) are enfranchised as a result of section 1, or
 - (b) are entitled to be registered as a parliamentary or local government elector before reaching voting age as a result of section 3.
- (4) The Secretary of State must lay the report before both Houses of Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Government to report on proposals to support the extension of the franchise to 16 and 17 year olds, through promoting awareness or making changes required to strengthen civic education.

Clause 17

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

Clause 17, page 23, line 23, at end insert –

- “(f) the person’s existence has been properly verified using three separate datasets used for national and local data matching.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the registration officer to register certain electors only when their existence has been verified through three different datasets.

After Clause 19

LORD PACK

After Clause 19, insert the following new Clause –

“Publication of voter registration and application statistics

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make available to the public data they hold concerning –
 - (a) the number of applications made by persons seeking to be registered in a relevant register;
 - (b) the number of persons that have been registered in a relevant register under section 12A(1) of RPA 1983.
- (2) Those data may, in particular, include the aggregate number of applications and registrations falling within subsection (1) in each individual electoral ward and electoral division, as well as at the national level.
- (3) In this section, “relevant register” has the same meaning as in section 12A of RPA 1983.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would permit the Secretary of State to publish data on voter registrations at the level of individual wards.

Clause 21

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY

Clause 21, page 33, line 33, at end insert –

- “(8) Voter registration provision does not mean any provision which amends the franchise for UK parliamentary elections or local elections in England.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment prevents the voter registration pilots being used to amend the franchise.

After Clause 38

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

After Clause 38, insert the following new Clause —

“Electoral register: British nationals abroad

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument introduce a system to give overseas electors the option to register to vote when they renew their British passport online.
- (2) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause would allow the Secretary of State to regulate to introduce a system to allow overseas electors the ability to register to vote when they renew their passport online.

Clause 48

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY

- “(iv) is issued subject to a search of a consumer’s credit file conducted in connection with the issuance of the card, which is recorded on the individual’s credit file and is visible to other lenders.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that only payment cards and cash withdrawal cards that are issued subject to a search of a consumer’s credit file conducted in the way set out in the amendment would be able to be used as voter ID.

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON
LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

The above-named Lords give notice of their intention to oppose the Question that Clause 48 stand part of the Bill.

Member's explanatory statement

This would mean that the requirement for showing photographic ID at polling stations would remain, and removes the part of the Bill which allows for certain payment cards to be used as ID.

After Clause 49

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

After Clause 49, insert the following new Clause –

“Expired postal votes

- (1) RPA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In Schedule 4, paragraph 3 (absent vote at elections for a period) after sub-paragraph (5) insert –
 - “(5A) In the case of a person whose entitlement to vote by post at elections of the kind in question has expired, the registration officer shall make available, upon request from a registered political party, that person’s details as supplied to the registration officer in his or her application to vote by post in parliamentary elections.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would give registered political parties access to data on expired postal votes.

Clause 50

LORD PACK

Clause 50, page 63, line 7, at end insert –

- “(g) the number of persons who cast a ballot;
- (h) the number of ballots cast for each candidate;
- (i) the number of ballots cast for each party;
- (j) the proportion of overall ballots cast for each candidate;
- (k) the proportion of overall ballots cast for each party;
- (l) the number of spoiled or rejected ballots;
- (m) voter turnout at each polling station.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment sets out additional election-related information that could be required to be provided under regulations made under clause 50.

After Clause 54

BARONESS FINN
LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

After Clause 54, insert the following new Clause –

“Statutory guidance on the Ballot Secrecy Act 2023

- (1) Within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Electoral Commission must prepare draft guidance for returning officers on enforcing the provisions of the Ballot Secrecy Act 2023.
- (2) Once the Commission has prepared draft guidance under this section, it must submit it to the Secretary of State.
- (3) Within 28 days of receipt the draft ballot secrecy guidance, the Secretary of State must lay before each House of Parliament a copy of the draft guidance, either –
 - (a) in its original form, or
 - (b) in a form which incorporates any modifications that the Secretary of State considers necessary.
- (4) If the draft guidance incorporates any such modifications, the Secretary of State must at the same time lay before each House a statement of the Secretary of State’s reasons for making them.
- (5) If, within the 40-day period, either House resolves not to approve the draft guidance, the Secretary of State must take no further steps in relation to the draft guidance.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not prevent new draft guidance from being laid before Parliament.
- (7) If no resolution of the kind mentioned in subsection (5) is made within the 40-day period –
 - (a) the Secretary of State must issue the guidance in the form of the draft laid before Parliament,
 - (b) the Commission must arrange for the guidance to be published in such manner as it considers appropriate, and
 - (c) the guidance comes into force on such day as the Secretary of State may by regulations appoint.
- (8) The Commission –
 - (a) may from time to time prepare draft revised guidance under this section, and
 - (b) must prepare draft revised guidance under this section if directed to do so by the Secretary of State.
- (9) References in this section (other than in subsection (1)) to guidance or draft guidance include revised guidance or draft revised guidance.
- (10) In this section “the 40-day period”, in relation to draft guidance, means –

- (a) if the draft is laid before one House on a day later than the day on which it is laid before the other House, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the two days, and
 - (b) in any other case, the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before each House,
- no account being taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (11) Returning officers must have regard to guidance issued under this section in exercising their functions.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Electoral Commission to prepare, and Parliament to approve, statutory guidance to returning officers on the enforcement of the Ballot Secrecy Act 2023.

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

After Clause 54, insert the following new Clause —

“Overseas electors: reform to voting process

- (1) The Secretary of State, must, by regulations made by statutory instrument, make provision to enable overseas voters to vote in person at a United Kingdom embassy, high commission or consulate at United Kingdom parliamentary elections.
- (2) For the purpose of this section, an “overseas elector” is a person who fulfils the requirements for an overseas elector in section 1 (extension of parliamentary franchise) of the RPA 1985.
- (3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may amend provision made by or under any other Act as necessary.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State make provision by regulations so that overseas electors can vote in person at United Kingdom embassies, consulates and high commissions for United Kingdom parliamentary elections.

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

After Clause 54, insert the following new Clause —

“Independent review of registration and participation by overseas electors in UK parliamentary elections

- (1) The Secretary of State must commission an independent review into how to increase the registration and participation by overseas electors in UK parliamentary elections.
- (2) The matters which the review must consider include, but are not limited to —
 - (a) the barriers to democratic participation by overseas electors;
 - (b) the impact of the Elections Act 2022 on overseas voters;
 - (c) the ability of overseas electors to register and to cast their vote successfully at the 2024 general election.
- (3) The independent review must report within six months of the day on which this Act is passed and must be laid before Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to commission an independent review into increasing the registration and participation by overseas electors in UK parliamentary elections.

LORD RENNARD

After Clause 54, insert the following new Clause —

“Overseas electors: review of feasibility of proposals for facilitating overseas ballots

- (1) Within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must publish and lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on proposals for facilitating overseas electors to vote in parliamentary elections.
- (2) The report must consider the feasibility of proposals for —
 - (a) the use of United Kingdom embassies, high commissions or consulates —
 - (i) as if they were a polling station as set out in Schedule 1 to RPA 1983, and
 - (ii) to receive postal votes,
 - (b) the digital transmission and printing of ballot papers,
 - (c) voting by telephone,
 - (d) secure electronic voting,
 - (e) changes to deadlines and practices as set out in Schedule 1 to RPA 1983 to enable earlier despatch of ballots for overseas voters,
 - (f) informing overseas voters on early registration and voting options,
 - (g) extended proxy voting arrangements for overseas voters, and

- (h) any other measures to improve the speed, accuracy and security of voting by overseas electors as the Secretary of State believes appropriate.
- (3) In preparing the report, the Secretary of State must consult –
 - (a) overseas electors,
 - (b) electoral administrators,
 - (c) His Majesty’s Diplomatic Service, and
 - (d) such other persons as the Secretary of State believes appropriate.
- (4) For the purpose of this section, an “overseas elector” is a person who fulfils the requirements for an overseas elector in section 1 of RPA 1985 (extension of parliamentary franchise).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to conduct a feasibility study on proposals to improve overseas voting, as recommended by the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Select Committee’s second report of the 2024-6 session, “Review of the 2024 general election”.

After Clause 61

LORD PACK
LORD WALLACE OF SALTIRE

After Clause 61, insert the following new Clause –

“Disclosure of past donations in cryptoassets

After section 66 (declaration by treasurer in donation report) of PPERA 2000 insert –

“63A Report on past donations involving cryptoassets

- (1) The treasurer of a registered party must, within the period of six months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force, prepare a report under this section.
- (2) The report must record the relevant details in relation to each donation received by the party during the relevant five-year period which was –
 - (a) made wholly or in part with cryptoassets, or
 - (b) accepted by means of a custodian wallet provider or cryptoasset exchange provider.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the “relevant five-year period” means the period of five years ending with the day on which this section comes into force.
- (4) In this section, “the relevant details” in relation to a donation means –
 - (a) the name and address of the donor,
 - (b) the amount or value of the donation,
 - (c) the date on which the donation was received, and

- (d) the date on which, and the way in which, any necessary steps were taken regarding the donation under section 56 (acceptance or return of donations: general).
- (5) The report must be delivered to the Commission within the period of 14 days beginning with the end of the period mentioned in subsection (1).
- (6) In this section –
 - “cryptoassets” has the meaning given by regulation 14A(3)(a) of the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692);
 - “cryptoasset exchange provider” has the meaning given by section 131ZC(3) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002;
 - “custodian wallet provider” has the meaning given by section 131ZC(3) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002.”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends PPERA 2000 to require registered political parties to compile and submit a one-off report to the Electoral Commission detailing the source, value, and dates of any donations made via cryptoassets, or accepted via crypto wallets or exchanges, over the past five years.

Clause 62

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

Clause 62, page 72, line 26, leave out “£100,000” and insert “£10,000”

LORD CARTER OF HASLEMERE

Leave out Clause 62 and insert the following new Clause –

“Annual donation cap

In PPERA 2000, after section 55 (payments etc. which are (or are not) to be treated as donations by permissible donors), insert –

“55A Refusal of donations which exceed the annual donation cap

- (1) The Secretary of State may make an order specifying the amount of the annual donation cap, having due regard to a recommendation from the Electoral Commission made under subsection (3), and after consultation with the Speaker’s Committee.
- (2) The “annual donation cap” is the limit on the amount of money which can be donated to a registered political party by one individual or entity in the period of 12 months ending on 31 March in any year.
- (3) The Electoral Commission must annually publish an annual donation cap recommendation.

- (4) A registered political party must refuse a donation from an individual or entity if it exceeds the annual donation cap.
- (5) The power of the Secretary of State to make an order under subsection (1) shall be exercised by statutory instrument and an order may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment replaces the donation cap on overseas electors imposed by clause 62 with an enabling power to set an annual donation cap applying to all permissible donors, and requires the Electoral Commission to make an annual recommendation on the amount of the annual donation cap.

Clause 63

BARONESS FINN

Clause 63, page 86, line 28, at end insert —

- “(da) whether the person from whom the donation is received is required to register under the Foreign Influence Registration Scheme established by the National Security Act 2023,”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the risk assessment to take into account whether a donor is required to register under the Foreign Influence Registration Scheme.

LORD PACK

Clause 63, page 86, line 28, at end insert —

- “(da) whether the donor, or a person connected with the donor, has at any time been convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty, bribery, corruption or money laundering (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere),
- (db) the extent to which the donation, or the funds used to make it, derive from or have passed through a person connected with the donor who has been convicted as mentioned in paragraph (da), and”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires parties to consider, as part of the risk assessment, whether a donor or a person connected with them has a conviction for fraud, dishonesty, bribery, corruption or money laundering, and whether the donation is derived from such a person.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

Clause 63, page 86, line 29, at end insert —

- “(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2)(da) and (db), a person is "connected with" the donor if —
- (a) they are the donor’s spouse, civil partner, parent, child or sibling,
 - (b) they are a person with significant control over the donor (within the meaning of section 54E or 54F), or
 - (c) they have, directly or indirectly, provided or arranged any part of the funds used to make the donation.
- (2B) A conviction is to be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (2)(da) if it is spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, unless the sentence imposed exceeded four years.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Lord Pack’s amendment to clause 63, page 86, line 28 and defines a person “connected with” a donor.

Clause 65

BARONESS FINN

Clause 65, page 90, line 29, leave out paragraph (c)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to remove the profit test on political donations from companies.

BARONESS FINN

Clause 65, page 95, line 7, leave out subsection (4)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the profit test on political donations from companies.

After Clause 71

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause —

“Impermissible donations where donor’s income is not subject to UK tax liability

In section 54 of PPERA 2000 (permissible donors), in subsection (1), after paragraph (ab), inserted by section 62(2)(a)(ii) of this Act, insert —

- “(ac) the person by whom the donation is to be made is using the foreign income and gains regime to claim tax relief on —

- (i) income and gains arising from outside the UK, or
- (ii) UK income or gains deemed to be foreign under the qualifying asset holding company rules; or”.

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would mean that donations could not be accepted by parties if a donor was using the foreign income and gains regime to claim tax relief on foreign income.

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 71, insert following new Clause –

“Permissible donors: foreign citizens

In section 54 of PPERA 2000 (permissible donors), after subsection (2) insert –

- “(2AA) For the purposes of this section, subject to the exemptions in section (2AB), an “individual registered in an electoral register” does not include a person who is on a register by virtue of being a “qualifying foreign citizen” for the purposes of –
- (a) section 2 of the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021, or
 - (b) section 1 of the Scottish Elections (Franchise and Representation) Act 2020.
- (2AB) The exemptions in this subsection are that the person is on an electoral register because they are –
- (c) a qualified Commonwealth citizen,
 - (d) a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, or
 - (e) a citizen of the European Union who would be eligible to vote in local elections under the English and Northern Ireland franchise.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause prevents people who are on electoral registers because they fulfil certain conditions in the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 and the Scottish Elections (Franchise and Representation) Act 2020, but are not qualifying Commonwealth, Irish or EU citizens, from being permissible donors.

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Mitigating the risk of foreign interference in political donations

Within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must publish a consultation paper on how the Government will enhance information-sharing between relevant agencies and public bodies and registered political parties to help to identify and mitigate the risk of foreign interference in political donations that are regulated by electoral law.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to consult on how to enhance information sharing between relevant public bodies or agencies and political parties to minimise the risk of foreign interference in political donations.

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Sponsorship

- (1) The Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 51 (sponsorship) after subsection (3)(b) insert –
 - “(c) the making of any payment in respect of advertisements or marketing at a conference organised by or on behalf of a registered party where the payment is made at the commercial rate payable for such advertisements or marketing.”
- (3) In section 52 (payments, services etc. not to be regarded as donations), for subsection (3) substitute –
 - “(3) Nothing in section 50 or 51 shall have the result that a payment made in respect of the –
 - (a) hire of a stand;
 - (b) hire or sponsorship of a lounge, dedicated space, room, marquee, roundtable event, meal or reception, at or associated with a party conference organised by or on behalf of a registered party is to constitute a donation to the party for the purposes of this Part if or to the extent that the payment does not exceed such of the maximum commercial rates which the Commission determine to be reasonable for such types of activity at a conference.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the definition of sponsorship for the purposes of PPERA 2000 so that it does not include advertising, marketing, hire of a stand or a space associated with a party conference, where payment is made at commercial rates.

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Tax exemption for political party fundraising and democratic engagement

- (1) Profits arising from fundraising activities undertaken at, or in connection with, an event organised by or on behalf of a registered political party or one of its accounting units are exempt from income tax and corporation tax, as applicable, where the event’s principal purpose is political fundraising, political campaigning or democratic engagement.

- (2) This in particular includes receipts from —
 - (a) admission charges and the sale of tickets, seats or tables,
 - (b) raffles, lotteries and prize draws,
 - (c) auctions, including the amount by which a successful bid exceeds the ordinary market value of the auctioned item, which is treated as a donation under electoral law where the applicable statutory conditions and threshold are met, and
 - (d) other fundraising activities forming part of, or directly connected with, the event.
- (3) The exemption applies whether payment is made by an individual, company or other permissible source, and whether participants are members or non-members of the organising registered political party.
- (4) The exemption also includes —
 - (a) receipts from business clubs operated principally for political fundraising or democratic engagement, provided members receive no material commercial benefit beyond attendance at events and the hospitality ordinarily provided, and
 - (b) voluntary contributions towards the cost of holding an event, including payments described or reportable as “sponsorship” under electoral law, where the payer receives no advertising, branding, promotional rights or other material commercial benefit in return.
- (5) The exemption does not include commercial sponsorship or other arrangements under which payment is made in return for advertising, prominent display of a name or brand, promotional rights or other identifiable commercial services.
- (6) The exemption applies even where the payment is classified as sponsorship or a donation for electoral law purposes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would exempt fundraising from political party events being subject to income tax or corporation tax, as applicable, where a party event's principal purpose is political fundraising, campaigning or democratic engagement.

LORD PACK
LORD WALLACE OF SALTIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause —

“Proposals for a Royal Commission on political donations and campaign expenditure

- (1) Within three months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must publish proposals for the establishment of a Royal Commission to consider —
 - (a) the merits of a cap on political donations and the level at which such a cap should be set, and
 - (b) the effectiveness of existing limits on campaign expenditure, including the appropriateness of the time period during which those limits apply.

- (2) Proposals published under this section must include proposals for the Royal Commission's—
 - (a) terms of reference,
 - (b) membership, and
 - (c) funding.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to publish proposals for a Royal Commission to consider a cap on political donations and the effectiveness of existing campaign expenditure limits.

LORD PACK
LORD WALLACE OF SALTIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause—

“Permissible donors not to include individuals serving a foreign administration

- (1) Section 54 of PPERA 2000 (permissible donors) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (2) insert—
 - “(2A) An individual who would otherwise fall within subsection (2)(a) is not a permissible donor if that individual is, or has been—
 - (a) a member of, or
 - (b) a politically-appointed adviser to, a foreign administration.”
- (3) After subsection (8) insert—
 - “(9) In subsection (2A)—

“foreign administration” means the government or state apparatus of any country or territory outside of the United Kingdom;

“member” includes elected and appointed members.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ban those who are or have been members of a foreign administration, or advisers to a foreign administration, from donating money to a political party, think tank or campaigning body.

LORD PACK
LORD WALLACE OF SALTIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause—

“Declaration of income or gifts from foreign governments

- (1) Schedule 1 to RPA 1983 (parliamentary elections rules) is amended as follows.

- (2) After rule 8 (consent to nomination) insert –

“Declaration of income or gifts from foreign governments

8A (1) A person is not validly nominated unless the person makes a declaration stating whether they have received in the past or are currently in receipt of any income or gifts from –

- (a) the government of any foreign nation, or
- (b) any person or organisation connected to the government of any foreign nation.

- (2) The declaration must be –

- (a) in the prescribed form,
- (b) signed by the person, and
- (c) delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers.

- (3) For the purposes of this rule, a person or organisation connected to the government of any foreign nation means anyone who has at any time been –

- (a) a member of, or
- (b) a politically-appointed adviser to, a foreign administration.”

- (3) In rule 6A (nomination papers: name of registered political party), at the end insert –

“(5) A registered political party is under a duty to ensure that a candidate has made the declaration required by rule 8A, and a certificate under paragraph (1) or (1B) may not be issued by or on behalf of the registered nominating officer of the party in respect of a candidate unless this duty has been discharged.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require candidates to declare any income or gifts from foreign nations or connected entities in order to be validly nominated. It also places a duty on political parties to ensure their candidates have made this declaration before authorising them to stand on behalf of the party.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Declaration of income or gifts from the Russian Federation

- (1) Schedule 1 to RPA 1983 (parliamentary elections rules) is amended as follows.

- (2) After rule 8 (consent to nomination) insert –

“Declaration of income or gifts from the Russian Federation

8A (1) A person is not validly nominated unless the person makes a declaration stating whether they have received in the past or are currently in receipt of any income or gifts from –

- (a) the government of the Russian Federation, or
- (b) any person or organisation connected to the government of the Russian Federation.

- (2) The declaration must be –

- (a) in the prescribed form,
- (b) signed by the person, and
- (c) delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers.

- (3) For the purposes of this rule, a person or organisation connected to the government of the Russian Federation means anyone who has at any time been –

- (a) a member of, or
- (b) a politically-appointed adviser to, the government of the Russian Federation.”

- (3) In rule 6A (nomination papers: name of registered political party), at the end insert –

“(5) A registered political party is under a duty to ensure that a candidate has made the declaration required by rule 8A, and a certificate under paragraph (1) or (1B) may not be issued by or on behalf of the registered nominating officer of the party in respect of a candidate unless this duty has been discharged.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require candidates to declare past or current income or gifts from the government of the Russian Federation or from any person or organisation connected to that government. It also places a duty on political parties to ensure that their candidates have made this declaration.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause—

“Annual statements on foreign donation risks and independent investigations

After section 66 (declaration by treasurer in donation report) of PPERA 2000 insert—

“66A Annual statement on mitigation of foreign donation risks

- (1) The treasurer of a registered party must, in respect of each calendar year, prepare a statement setting out the steps taken by the party to mitigate risks relating to donations originating from a foreign nation.
- (2) The statement must be delivered to the Commission alongside the party’s statement of accounts for that year.

66B Annual independent investigation of donations by foreign-owned UK entities

- (1) A registered party must, in respect of each calendar year, arrange for an independent investigation to be conducted into any donations received by the party from a foreign-owned UK entity.
- (2) A report of the independent investigation must be submitted to the Commission by the treasurer of the party within six months of the end of the calendar year to which it relates.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument make provision about—
 - (a) the appointment and qualifications of an independent investigator for the purposes of this section,
 - (b) the definition of a “foreign-owned UK entity”, and
 - (c) the required contents of the investigation report.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (3) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires registered political parties to produce an annual statement detailing how they have mitigated risks relating to donations from foreign nations. It also requires parties to commission an annual independent investigation into donations they receive from foreign-owned UK entities, with the findings submitted to the Electoral Commission.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Permissible donors not to include persons who have promoted political violence

In section 54 of PPERA 2000 (permissible donors), after subsection (3ZB) (inserted by section 65(2)(d)) insert –

- “(3ZC) A person is not to be treated as a permissible donor in relation to a donation if the person has been convicted of a prescribed offence relating to the promotion, incitement or use of political violence.
- (3ZD) The Secretary of State must by regulations prescribe the offences which fall within subsection (3ZC).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to prevent anyone who has promoted political violence from donating to a political party.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Prohibition of controlled expenditure and expenses by non-permissible donors

- (1) PPERA 2000 is amended as set out in subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) In section 89A (restriction on which third parties may incur controlled expenditure) omit subsection (2).
- (3) In section 89B (restriction on which third parties may incur controlled expenditure: Senedd Cymru elections) omit subsection (2).
- (4) In section 89B (restriction on which third parties may incur controlled expenditure: Scottish Parliament elections) omit subsection (2).
- (5) In section 75 of RPA 1983 (prohibition of expenses not authorised by election agent) omit –
 - (a) subsection 1ZZB(a), and
 - (b) subsection 1ZA.
- (6) In section 41 of the Elections Act 2022 (requirement to include information with electronic material) after subsection (3)(b) insert –

“(c) a statement declaring the original source of the funding used to pay for the promotion or publication of the material.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause prevents controlled expenditure and expenses by non-permissible donors, including foreign-funded advertising, by reducing the existing £700 spending limit for such donors to nil. It also requires that campaign material includes a statement declaring the origin of its funding.

LORD PACK
LORD WALLACE OF SALTIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Prohibition of political advertising by non-permissible donors

- (1) A person or organisation that is not a permissible donor must not incur any expenditure on political advertising, whether or not related to a relevant election.
- (2) For the purposes of this section –
 - (a) “political advertising” means any materials or activities with a view to promoting a political party, candidate or campaign;
 - (b) “relevant election” has the same meaning as in Part II of PPERA 2000.
- (3) The Secretary of State must, within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, by regulations made by statutory instrument amend, repeal or revoke any enactment, including this Act and other electoral legislation, where the Secretary of State considers it necessary for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (4) Before making regulations under this section, the Secretary of State must consult –
 - (a) the Electoral Commission, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would prevent non-permissible donors from funding political advertising, whether or not related to a relevant election, and provide the Secretary of State with regulation making powers to enable this prohibition to be enforced.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause —

“Payments from foreign state broadcasters to politicians and candidates

- (1) After paragraph 6 of Schedule 7 to PPERA 2000 (control of donations to individuals and members associations) insert —

“Prohibition on payments from foreign state broadcasters

- 6A (1) A regulated donee must not accept any payment, remuneration or other financial benefit, whether or not on commercial terms, from a prescribed foreign state broadcaster.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe a foreign state broadcaster for the purposes of this paragraph where the Secretary of State considers the broadcaster is acting on behalf of, or producing propaganda for, a foreign power.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph, a payment or benefit includes, but is not limited to, remuneration for appearing on, hosting, or contributing to broadcasts or programmes.”

- (2) After rule 8 (consent to nomination) of Schedule 1 to RPA 1983 (parliamentary elections rules) insert —

“Declaration of past earnings from foreign state broadcasters

- 8A (1) A person is not validly nominated unless the person makes a declaration stating whether they have received any past or current earnings, payments or benefits from a foreign state broadcaster prescribed under paragraph 6A of Schedule 7 to the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000.
- (2) The declaration must be —
- (a) in the prescribed form,
 - (b) signed by the person, and
 - (c) delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause prohibits politicians (regulated donors) from receiving any payment from prescribed foreign state broadcasters. It also amends the parliamentary election rules to require candidates (including incumbent MPs) to formally declare any past earnings from these entities in order to be validly nominated to stand for election.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE

After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause –

“Prohibition on remuneration for social media activity

- (1) After paragraph 6 of Schedule 7 to PPERA 2000 (control of donations to individuals and members associations) insert –

“Prohibition on payments for social media activity

6C (1) A regulated donee must not accept any payment, remuneration or other financial benefit, whether or not on commercial terms, from any person or organisation in connection with activity on a social media platform.

- (2) For the purposes of this section –

- (a) a payment or benefit includes, but is not limited to, remuneration for publishing, promoting or interacting with content on a social media platform,
- (b) a social media platform means an electronic medium or service through which users may create, share, or view user-generated content, including, without limitation, videos, photographs, blogs, podcasts, messages, emails, or website profiles or locations.”

- (2) After paragraph 6 of Schedule 2A to RPA 1983 (control of donations to candidates) insert –

“Prohibition on payments for social media activity

6A (1) A candidate or their election agent must not accept any payment, remuneration or other financial benefit, whether or not on commercial terms, from any person or organisation in connection with activity on a social media platform.

- (2) For the purposes of this section –

- (a) a payment or benefit includes, but is not limited to, remuneration for publishing, promoting or interacting with content on a social media platform,
- (b) a social media platform means an electronic medium or service through which users may create, share, or view user-generated content, including, without limitation, videos, photographs, blogs, podcasts, messages, emails, or website profiles or locations.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause prohibits members of registered parties, members associations, holders of relevant elective offices and electoral candidates from receiving any payment, remuneration, or financial benefit in exchange for posting, promoting, or interacting with content on social media.

LORD BLUNKETT

★ After Clause 71, insert the following new Clause —

“Donations to registered parties from those convicted of financial crime

In section 54 of PPERA 2000 (permissible donors), after subsection (2)(h) insert —

- “(i) an individual who has not been convicted of a financial crime resulting in —
- (i) a penalty of a fine or imprisonment, or
 - (ii) a suspension of any penalty within the last ten years,
- in the United Kingdom or in a sovereign state with established legal systems characterised by judicial independence and adherence to the rule of law.”

After Clause 73

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON
LORD JACKSON OF PETERBOROUGH

After Clause 73, insert the following new Clause —

“Language of campaign materials

- (1) During the relevant period campaign material must not be promoted or published in a foreign language.
- (2) A person is guilty of an offence if the person causes campaign material to be promoted or published that falls within subsection (1).
- (3) For the purposes of this section —
 - “campaign material” means imprinted election campaign material published by political parties and candidates, whether in hard copy or digital format;
 - “foreign language” means a native language of any foreign country outside the British Islands, other than English;
 - “relevant period” means the period specified in section 90ZA of the RPA 1983.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable —
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland or Northern Ireland to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (2) to prove —
 - (a) that the person took all reasonable steps, and exercised all due diligence, to ensure that the campaign material was not promoted or published contrary to subsection (1), and
 - (b) that the contravention arose from circumstances beyond the person's control.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would ban election materials published in a foreign language by political parties and candidates during the short campaign. It would not ban campaigning in native languages of the British Islands such as in English, Welsh, Cornish, Ulster Scots, Irish, et al. Nor would it prevent campaigning via the likes of BSL or Braille.

LORD CLEMENT-JONES

After Clause 73, insert the following new Clause –

“Information to be included with electronic material: generative artificial intelligence

In section 41 of the Elections Act 2022 (requirement to include information with electronic material), after subsection (2)(b) insert –

“(c) where the electronic material consists of or includes image, audio or video content that has been generated or materially altered by means of generative artificial intelligence, a statement that such artificial intelligence has been used is included.

(2A) In this section, "generative artificial intelligence" means a machine-based system that can, for a given set of human-defined prompts or objectives, generate new image, audio or video content.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause amends the digital imprint rules in the Elections Act 2022 to require that any political campaigning material which contains images, audio or video generated or materially altered by AI must include a statement that such artificial intelligence has been used.

THE LORD BISHOP OF LEICESTER

After Clause 73, insert the following new Clause –

“Election material: prohibition on use of pictures of religious buildings

(1) This section applies to –

- (a) a parliamentary election,
- (b) an election to the Scottish Parliament,
- (c) an election to Senedd Cymru,
- (d) an election to the Northern Ireland Assembly,
- (e) a local government election in England, Wales or Scotland, or
- (f) a local election in Northern Ireland.

(2) No election material may be published in so far as it contains a picture which –

- (a) is or includes a picture of the whole or part of a religious building, and
- (b) suggests a close connection between a candidate to whom the material relates and the building or the religion with which the building is associated.

- (3) Where material is published in contravention of this section, each of the following commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine –
 - (a) a candidate to whom the material relates,
 - (b) the election agent for such a candidate, and
 - (c) the person causing the material to be published (if that person does not come within paragraph (a) or (b)).
- (4) “Election material” means material which can reasonably be regarded as intended to promote or procure the election of a candidate to whom the material relates.
- (5) “Religious building” –
 - (a) includes the interior and the curtilage, but
 - (b) does not include a building used, or suitable for use, by a minister of religion wholly or mainly as a residence from which to perform duties of that office.
- (6) “Local government election” means –
 - (a) a local government election within the meaning of section 191, 203 or 204 of RPA 1983, or
 - (b) an election under Part 1A or 2 of the Local Government Act 2000 for the return of an elected mayor.
- (7) “Local election in Northern Ireland” means a local election within the meaning of the Electoral Law (Northern Ireland) Act 1962.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would prohibit the inclusion of pictures of religious buildings in election material at a parliamentary election, an election to a devolved legislature or a local election.

After Clause 77

LORD PACK

After Clause 77, insert the following new Clause –

“Electoral Commission: pre-investigation decision notices

In Schedule 19B to PPERA 2000 (investigatory powers of Commission), in paragraph 3, sub-paragraph (5), at end insert “, or

- (b) relevant to determining whether to start an investigation.””

Member's explanatory statement

This new Clause would enable the Electoral Commission to require information before launching a formal investigation.

Clause 78

BARONESS FINN

Baroness Finn gives notice of her intention to oppose the Question that Clause 78 stand part of the Bill.

Member's explanatory statement

This would stop the removal of the Electoral Commission's strategy and policy statement, which amongst other things, provides practical protections against electoral fraud and interference.

After Clause 79

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 79, insert the following new Clause –

“Electoral Commission: civil penalties and enforcement

In Schedule 19C of PPERA 2000 (civil sanctions), after paragraph 1(1) insert –

- “(1A) When deciding whether to impose a fixed monetary penalty under this Act, the Commission must have regard to whether the penalty will –
- (a) change the behaviour of the offender,
 - (b) eliminate any financial gain or benefit from non-compliance,
 - (c) be appropriate for the particular offender and regulatory issue,
 - (d) be proportionate to the nature of the offence and the harm caused,
 - (e) restore the harm caused by regulatory non-compliance, where appropriate, and
 - (f) deter future non-compliance.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would put the “Macrory principles” for regulators on to a statutory footing as regards the Electoral Commission.

BARONESS LISTER OF BURTERSETT
BARONESS THORNHILL

After Clause 79, insert the following new Clause —

“Electoral Commission: publication of information about diversity in range of candidates

After section 13A of PPERA 2000 (reimbursement of costs by Scottish Ministers etc) insert —

“13ZZA Collection and publication of information about diversity in range of candidates

- (1) The Commission shall collect information published under section 106 of the Equality Act 2010.
- (2) The Commission shall publish the information collected under subsection (1) in an accessible form at such intervals as the Commission considers appropriate.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Electoral Commission to collect and publish in an accessible form diversity information to be provided by political parties under section 106 of the Equality Act 2010.

After Clause 80

BARONESS THORNHILL

After Clause 80, insert the following new Clause —

“Hostility towards relatives and staff of candidates etc.

After section 32 (candidates etc) of the Elections Act 2022 insert —

“32A Relatives and staff of candidates

- (1) A person falls within this section if the person is —
 - (a) a relative, or
 - (b) a member of staff,
 of a person described in section 32 (candidates etc.).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) “relative” has the meaning given by section 63(1) of the Family Law Act 1996.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) “member of staff” means a person who is employed by or working under the direction of a person described in section 32 (candidates etc.).””

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would, together with Baroness Thornhill's amendment to page 120, line 2, add relatives and staff of candidates to the persons against which hostility may lead to a disqualification order and for the purposes of a statutory aggravating factor.

Clause 81

BARONESS THORNHILL

Clause 81, page 120, line 2, after “candidates,” insert “candidates’ relatives, candidates’ staff,”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would, together with Baroness Thornhill's amendment to insert the new clause “Hostility towards relatives and staff of candidates etc.”, include family members and staff of candidates as people towards whom hostility would be treated as an aggravating factor.

After Clause 84

LORD GOODMAN OF WYCOMBE

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause—

“Independent review of the 2024 general election

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within three months of the day on which this Act is passed, commission an independent review of the conduct of the 2024 parliamentary general election.
- (2) The review must consider—
 - (a) reports of intimidation or undue influence of electors,
 - (b) the collection, handling and return of postal votes,
 - (c) practices at polling stations including so-called family voting,
 - (d) the role of community organisations in campaigning, and
 - (e) the adequacy of existing criminal offences and of police and returning officer responses.
- (3) The Secretary of State must appoint a person who appears to the Secretary of State to be independent and to have relevant experience to conduct the review.
- (4) The person appointed must report the recommendations of the independent review to the Secretary of State within nine months of appointment.
- (5) The Secretary of State must lay the report before Parliament no later than three months after the person appointed has reported to the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Secretary of State must, within three months of laying the report, publish a response setting out which recommendations the Government accepts.”

BARONESS LEAMAN
 BARONESS THORNHILL
 LORD BLUNKETT
 BARONESS GREY-THOMPSON

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause —

“Access to Elected Office Fund (England)

After section 90D of RPA 1983 insert —

“90E Access to Elected Office Fund (England)

- (1) The Secretary of State must, by regulations, require the Electoral Commission to establish and maintain a fund to be known as the Access to Elected Office Fund (England) (“the Fund”).
- (2) The purpose of the Fund is to provide financial assistance to disabled candidates standing for election in England, including providing assistance to meet any additional campaign costs incurred by the candidate as a result of their disability, and the Electoral Commission or a person designated under subsection (4)(a) must administer the Fund consistently with that purpose.
- (3) The Secretary of State may from time to time make payments into the Fund of such amounts as they may determine.
- (4) Regulations under this section may —
 - (a) designate a different person, other than the Electoral Commission, to establish and maintain the Fund,
 - (b) specify criteria for eligibility for financial assistance,
 - (c) set out the types of expenditure for which financial assistance may be provided,
 - (d) specify the value of financial assistance available to an individual candidate, and
 - (e) establish rules and procedures that the Electoral Commission or a person designated under subsection (4)(a) must comply with when administering the Fund.
- (5) Before making any regulations under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must consult —
 - (a) disabled people,
 - (b) political parties,
 - (c) relevant charities and civil society organisations, and
 - (d) the Equality and Human Rights Commission.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “disability” has the meaning given under section 6 (disability) of the Equality Act 2010.
- (7) Any regulations made under this section must not be made unless a draft has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to establish a fund to provide financial assistance to disabled candidates.

BARONESS LEAMAN
BARONESS LISTER OF BURTERSETT
BARONESS THORNHILL

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause —

“Commencement of section 106 of the Equality Act 2010

The Secretary of State must, within three months of the day on which this Act is passed, make an order under section 216 (commencement) of the Equality Act 2010 to commence section 106 (information about diversity in range of candidates, etc.) of that Act.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to commence section 106 of the Equality Act 2010 within three months, which would require political parties to publish information on the protected characteristics of candidates in parliamentary elections, elections to the Scottish Parliament and to the Senedd.

BARONESS HOEY

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause —

“Equality impact assessment prior to extending the franchise to younger voters in the UK

- (1) Within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must carry out an equality impact assessment of the proposed extension of the franchise in Northern Ireland compared with Great Britain.
- (2) The Secretary of State must within nine months of the day on which this Act is passed lay before both Houses of Parliament —
 - (a) the equality impact assessment required by subsection (1), and
 - (b) a report setting out the Government’s formal response to the equality impact assessment.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause is connected to the amendment to Clause 90 in the name of Baroness Hoey and facilitates a debate on the equality impact of the proposed General Election franchise change on young people in Northern Ireland compared with the rest of the UK.

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON
LORD BRADY OF ALTRINCHAM

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause –

“Review: age of majority

The Secretary of State must lay a report before both Houses of Parliament that reviews the case for differing the age at which it becomes legal to vote in parliamentary general elections from –

- (a) the age of majority in the Family Law Reform Act 1969, and
- (b) any minimum ages specified in law which the Secretary of State considers appropriate to review.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, and two others in the name of Baroness O'Neill, would prevent Part 1 of the Act coming into force until the Secretary of State has undertaken a review of the consistency of the age of majority.

BARONESS FINN

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause –

“Consultation with the Parliamentary Parties Panel

The Secretary of State must consult the Parliamentary Parties Panel established under section 4 of PPERA 2000 (parliamentary parties panel) before any provision of this Act, except this section and Part 7, comes into force.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, and another in the name of Baroness Finn, seek to prevent the Act from coming into force until the Secretary of State has consulted the Parliamentary Parties Panel.

BARONESS MORGAN OF COTES
LORD CARLILE OF BERRIEW
LORD CLEMENT-JONES

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause –

“Elections code

- (1) Section 41 of the Online Safety Act 2023 (codes of practice about duties) is amended in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) After subsection (3) insert –
 - “(3A) OFCOM must prepare and issue a code of practice for providers of Part 3 services describing measures recommended for the purpose of compliance with the relevant duties in relation to the risk of electoral harm during an election period.”

(3) In subsection (10), at the end insert –

““electoral harm” –

(a) means –

- (i) illegal content,
- (ii) content harmful to children, and
- (iii) in relation to Category 1 services, content listed in section 16, directed at candidates, campaign staff, returning officers and associated staff, or their families, during an election period, and

(b) includes –

- (i) threats of violence,
- (ii) stalking,
- (iii) online harassment,
- (iv) hate speech,
- (v) non-consensual intimate images including deepfakes,
- (vi) doxxing,
- (vii) offences under the Representation of the People Act 1983,
- (viii) false communications within the meaning of section 179, and
- (ix) content or behaviours relating to a foreign interference offence under the National Security Act 2023,

insofar as each affects a relevant election;

“relevant election” means any of the following –

- (a) national, local, devolved administration and strategic mayoral elections,
- (b) referendums, and
- (c) by-elections for the UK Parliament, Senedd Cymru, Scottish Parliament and Northern Ireland Assembly;

“election period” means the regulated period for the purposes of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in respect of the particular type of election.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment adds to the codes that Ofcom is required to produce to help service providers comply with their duties under the Online Safety Act 2023 and aims to deal with the specific risks relating to an election period.

BARONESS MORGAN OF COTES
LORD CARLILE OF BERRIEW
LORD CLEMENT-JONES

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause —

“Election offences

In Schedule 7 to the Online Safety Act 2023 (priority offences) after paragraph 38 insert —

“Election offences

- 38A(1) An offence under section 66 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (requirement of secrecy).
- (2) An offence under section 66A of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (exit polls).
- (3) An offence under section 106(1) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (false statements of fact as to candidates).
- (4) An offence under section 114A of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (undue influence).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to list election offences as priority offences for the purposes of the Online Safety Act, confirming that they are relevant offences for the purposes of that Act and imposing pre-emptive duties in relation to them.

BARONESS THORNHILL

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause —

“Duty of Electoral Commission to provide candidate safety guidance

- (1) The Electoral Commission must, within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, prepare and publish guidance on the safety and security of candidates and campaigners during election periods.
- (2) The guidance must include information about —
 - (a) identifying, recording and reporting threats, abuse and intimidation,
 - (b) physical and online security measures, and
 - (c) the roles of the police, the Electoral Commission and any other relevant public authorities in relation to candidate safety during an election period.
- (3) The Electoral Commission must keep the guidance under review and revise it whenever it considers appropriate.
- (4) A returning officer must provide each validly nominated candidate with a copy of, or an electronic link to, the guidance as soon as reasonably practicable after the candidate's nomination is accepted.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, “election periods” means the period specified in section 90ZA of RPA 1983 (meaning of “election expenses”).”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause places a duty on the Electoral Commission to publish and maintain candidate safety guidance, and requires returning officers to provide it to candidates as soon as possible after their nomination has been accepted.

LORD WALLACE OF SALTAIRE
LORD CLEMENT-JONES

After Clause 84, insert the following new Clause –

“Report on interference in UK elections originating from the United States of America

- (1) The Secretary of State must, within 12 months of the day on which this Act is passed, publish a report on the extent of electoral interference originating from the United States of America (USA) and its impact on the integrity of elections in the United Kingdom.
- (2) The report published under subsection (1) must review the extent of the following activities and their impact on voters –
 - (a) USA-based social media companies amplifying electoral campaign material via algorithms, and
 - (b) donations made to registered political parties, think-tanks, lobbying firms and other regulated donees in the United Kingdom originating from –
 - (i) the USA government,
 - (ii) USA-based companies,
 - (iii) business leaders with USA citizenship, and
 - (iv) USA-based grant-giving foundations.
- (3) The report must also set out information about the nature of any campaigns receiving donations from those set out in subsection (2), including –
 - (a) the stated aims attached to any donations made, and
 - (b) any agreements between donees and organisations in receipt of such donations and the donors.
- (4) The report published under subsection (1) must include any recommendations considered necessary to protect the integrity of United Kingdom elections.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, “the integrity of United Kingdom elections” means the extent to which elections are considered to be free and fair, and have public confidence in their outcomes.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Government to publish a report on electoral interference originating from the USA and its impact on the integrity of elections in the United Kingdom, focusing on the extent of algorithmic amplification of campaign material by US-based social media companies and of donations from US-based companies and business leaders.

Clause 90

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON

Clause 90, page 127, line 33, at end insert –

- “(1A) Sections 17, 18 and 19 of this Act do not come into force until the Secretary of State has published an independent review into the steps necessary to avoid non-qualifying EU or Commonwealth voters incorrectly being automatically added to the electoral roll.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent the provisions on automatic voter registration coming into force until the Secretary of State had published an independent review of the steps necessary to avoid non-qualifying EU or Commonwealth voters being incorrectly automatically added to the electoral roll.

Clause 90, page 127, line 33, at end insert –

- “(1A) Part 1 may come into force once the Secretary of State has laid a report before both Houses as required under section (Equality impact assessment prior to extending the franchise to younger voters in the UK).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, together with the new clause in the name of Baroness Hoey, would require the Secretary of State to produce a report in response to an equality assessment on extending the franchise to younger voters in the UK.

BARONESS O'NEILL OF BEXLEY
LORD JAMIESON
LORD BRADY OF ALTRINCHAM

Clause 90, page 127, line 33, at end insert –

- “(1A) Part 1 may not come into force until the requirement set out in section (Review: age of majority) has been met.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, and two others in the name of Baroness O'Neill, would prevent Part 1 of the Act coming into force until the Secretary of State had undertaken a review of the consistency of the age of majority.
