Amendment No.

After Clause 7

BARONESS BRINTON

7A★ After Clause 7, insert the following new Clause—

"Multi-agency stalking intervention programme (MASIP)

(1) The Secretary of State must take steps to commission multi-agency stalking intervention programmes (MASIPs) to improve the identification and management of cases of stalking within the armed forces.

(2) Such programmes must provide for coordination between relevant armed forces authorities, civilian police forces, public authorities, probation services, health services and specialist stalking support services."

Member's explanatory statement
This amendment would promote coordinated multi-agency responses to cases of stalking across military and civilian public bodies, improving risk management and victim protection.

BARONESS BRINTON

7B★ After Clause 7, insert the following new Clause—

"Stalking progress report

(1) The Secretary of State must, within 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, prepare and publish an annual report on progress in addressing stalking within the armed forces.

(2) The report must contain—

(a) disaggregated data on progress towards addressing cases of stalking within the armed forces, including applications for service stalking protection orders, the number of granted and refused applications as well as timelines for responding to cases,

(b) information on progress towards establishing and implementing multi-agency stalking intervention programmes (MASIPs), and

(c) information on the implementation of measures to ensure mandatory initial and refresher specialist stalking training for armed forces personnel and officials, in consultation with specialist stalking organisations."

Member's explanatory statement
This amendment would require the Secretary of State to publish annual reports on progress in addressing stalking within the Armed Forces, including data on service stalking protection orders, the implementation of MASIPs and specialist stalking training.
